REPORT A

The President

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

To the Maryland Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—

In submitting my fourth annual report to this the seventy-eighth session of the Conference, I greet you as brethren beloved of the household of faith, and as co-workers together with Christ for the salvation of the world.

As we meet again after another year of ministerial labor and anxiety we are cheered by the assurance that we have not toiled in vain. On the fields we have left behind, many sheaves have been gathered, while the end of the harvest is not yet.

The mercies and blessings of the year have been many and great, while the trials and disappointments may well be lost in the joy of meeting and mingling again in the sweet fellowship of our annual assembly. The shadow falls at this point, however, as we mention what must be the first department of the report.

DEATHS

While death has not called away any from the active ranks of our pastors during the year, he has been busy with the group composed of our Superannuated and Supernumerary ministers. Some dear faces, long familiar in our annual gatherings, must be looked upon hereafter from memory's gallery, and some names for many years as common and as loved as household words among us must be transferred to the "Dead Roll."

Rev. John Jackson Murray, D. D., died April 10th, 1905, just the day before adjournment of our last session. For sixty-three years he was an honored and loved minister of the Conference, serving as its president from the spring of 1865 to the spring of 1868.

His impressive personality, his loyalty and devotion to the church of his choice, his splendid gifts of intellect and heart made him known and honored throughout our own denomination, and brought him flattering recognition from other and larger branches of the Church of Christ.

Rev. William Sim Hammond, D.D., died May 14th, 1905. For fifty-four years he was among us in Conference fellowship and toil; with a smiling face and loving heart he was every man's friend and helper. He, too, was our president, filling that office from the spring of 1886 to April 1889.

His charm of manner, his many winning traits of character, his popular pulpit abilities and excellent adaptations to the pastoral office, made him known far beyond the bounds of his own Conference district as one of our most acceptable and successful preachers and pastors.

Rev. George D. Edmonston died June 2d, 1905. Brother Edmonston was identified with the Conference (with an intermission of eight years) forty-one years. He was a true minister of Jesus Christ, and did all he could for the salvation of men and the upbuilding of the church he loved and served.

Rev. William Augustus Crouse died January 11th, 1906. For thirty-six years Brother Crouse was a member of the Conference. He was a gentle, loving, lovable man; a spiritual, edifying, evangelical preacher, and gifted with rare power in prayer.

Rev. David Wilson, M. D., Died February 28th, 1906, after sixty-one years of membership in the Conference. He was courtly in manner, gracious in address, a popular preacher, successful pastor, and was honored by his brethren in being elected as the president of the Conference, serving in that capacity from the spring of 1874 to the spring of 1877.

Mrs. William Augustus Crouse, wife of Rev. W. A. Crouse, died April 18th, 1905, thus preceding her husband to the better land by just nine months.

Of all these we may joyfully say,

"The battles all fought, the victory won,"

"They have the reward—Good Servants, well done."

CHANGES

In the interest of the work, and by consent of all parties concerned, Rev. P. W. Crosby was released from Fairview Mission, April 25th, 1905, and assigned to Leeds Circuit; and Brother C. M. Elderdice of the seminary was placed in charge of Fairview.

April 28th, 1905. I received a communication from Rev. E. H. Nelson, submitting, to use his own words, his "resignation as a member of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church," and stating: "As my elder's credentials have been destroyed, this letter is intended to be (and must be recognized as such) a surrender of all authority conferred upon me by ordination from the said Maryland Conference." As the acceptance of this resignation left the pastorate of Talbot Circuit vacant I appointed Brother S. W.

Taylor, a student from the seminary, pastoral supply during the vacation months at the school. At the expiration of this period, Brother R. Stanley Litsinger, son of our Rev. W. D. Litsinger, being duly recommended by the Quarterly Conference of Evergreen Station, was assigned to the pastorate of the circuit, and has acceptably served the same until the present time.

Rev. A. N. Ward, having been elected pastor of the First Church, Seattle, Washington, by the Board of Home Missions, and insisting upon being released from the pastorate of North Carolina Avenue Church, to which he had been appointed by the last Conference, and the members of that church voting their consent to the release, I, at length, deeming the deep conviction Brother Ward seemed to have that God was calling him to that distant field a sufficient reason, released him on October 1st, 1905.

On the same date, by consent of Violetville charge and its pastor, I released Rev. R. L. Shipley from the pastorate of that church and assigned him to the pastorate of North Carolina Avenue Church, Washington, D. C., where he has successfully served to the present.

Rev. H. F. Gould, of the New York Annual Conference, a student at the seminary, was appointed pastoral supply of Violetville, and has rendered most acceptable service to date.

October 1st, 1905, on account of the serious illness of his wife, and by consent of all parties interested, I released Rev. J. L. Nichols from the pastorate of Dover and Leipsic charges. Since his release Brother Nichols has temporarily withdrawn from the denomination and taken work in another church to meet the exigencies of his family life.

Rev. G. A. Ogg of the New York Annual Conference, was appointed pastor of Dover and Leipsic, October 1st, 1905, and has filled out the year on these fields.

May 10th, 1905, Brother W. L. Hoffman, of the seminary, was appointed associate pastor of Heathville Circuit for the summer months. This was done in conformity with the action of the Quarterly Conference of the circuit, communicated to the president by the delegate at the last Conference.

Rev. W. C. Stone, a probationary member of the Conference, pastor of Felton Circuit, notified me of his purpose to leave the charge October 1st, 1905. He accordingly left, taking work in another denomination. I recommend that his name be stricken from the roll of trial members of the Conference.

At the united request of the pastor and Quarterly Conference of Liberty Circuit, I appointed Bro. L. B. Douglas, a student at the seminary, associate pastor of that circuit, October 9th, 1905, for service in the village of Libertytown, which arrangement has continued until Conference.

Serious affliction overtook Rev. G. F. Norris, pastor of Lawsonia, and it became necessary to place him in an institution for treatment about the middle of January of this year, where he is at present, and will not be able to take work during the ensuing year.

Efforts seemed to have been made to bring about changes in other directions. As many as four of our young men were approached by letters¹¹ from churches in other Conferences bidding for their services. Three of the four were single men, and were told they had been recommended to the churches as suitable men to fill the vacancies. In some of the cases an actual call was extended. None of the brethren, however, were decoyed away from the Conference by the flattery of the offers, or the promise of more rapid promotion thus held out. The pressing need for men, especially for unmarried men, in our Conference would seem to be so plain that no Maryland Conference man could be found seeking to lessen the number we now have, but rather in trying to augment that number. However, we believe any Conference can well afford to let men go who seek publicity, preferment and pay for themselves, rather than peace, progress and prosperity for the Conference.

UNSUPPLIED CHARGES

There were nine places left unsupplied at the last Conference. All of these have been supplied for the entire year, except three. Of these three one has been supplied for a part of the year.

Waverly was supplied during the first part of the year by Rev. W. M. Jett, an unstationed preacher of the West Baltimore Quarterly Conference. Upon the conclusion of his services there was a practical abandonment of the entire organization by the few who had been running things at that point. I then appointed Rev. N. T. Meginnis in charge of the mission work at Waverly. With this appointment we began our work anew at that place. Brother Meginnis served faithfully and efficiently until early fall, when, because of business engagements, he was obliged to seek a release. Upon releasing him I immediately assigned Rev. W. S. Simms, an unstationed preacher of the Broadway Quarterly Conference, as missionary in charge of the work. Brother Simms has been remarkably successful in gathering a congregation, increasing the Sunday School attendance, and in revival work. With a new organization the future is more hopeful, and none of us desires the sale of the property at this time.

Campbell was efficiently supplied during the vacation period by Brother G. L. Curry of the seminary. I believe this field would respond to faithful work, and soon develop a larger measure of strength if it were possible to give it a permanent pastor. This seems out of the question, however, as long as our young brethren will marry without giving the Conference practically any service as single men.

Deer Park has been supplied since the middle of May by Rev. J. A. Kittell of the West Virginia Conference, who was employed under transfer from that Conference, duly signed by its president and the president of our Conference, which transfer will be presented here for action thereon by the Conference.

Fox Hill has been supplied all the year by Brother N. V. Cossaboon, who was duly recommended by the Quarterly Conference of Alexandria Station.

Harbeson has likewise been supplied all the year by Rev. W. A. Sites, an unstationed minister of West Baltimore Station.

Mount Nebo has also been served all the year most acceptably by Brother C. J. Edwards, and Williamsport by Brother G. W. Beck, both students at the Seminary in Westminster.

Patapsco has not been supplied during the year, because we really have nothing there. What little interest we had there was killed more than two years ago. The building, old and dilapidated, is situated on land belonging to the Oella Mills' Company, hence the property is not ours. I, therefore, recommend that Patapsco be stricken from the list of appointments.

Neither has Jones' Memorial Church been supplied during the year. It seems we do not have at this point membership, constituency, or field, but there is a building and lot deeded to the trustees of the Conference. I, therefore, deem it wise to retain this church on our list for the present at least.

Cherrydale, which was left in the hands of the president by the last Conference, has been supplied during the entire year by Rev. R. S. Laurenson, an unstationed preacher of the First Church, Washington, D. C., Quarterly Conference.

BENEVOLENT AGENCIES

Mrs. T. A. Reese, whose praise is in all the churches, has laid her usual generous, annual offerings on the altars of the Conference to help our pastors and our enterprises during the year.

The infirmities of age are upon this loyal lover of our cause, but she abates none of her liberal, helpful, holy interest in the work of the church of her life-long attachment and consecrated labors. She deserves, and I am persuaded has, the heartfelt admiration and gratitude of every member of the Conference.

The Pipe Creek and Jefferson Benevolent Societies, and the St. John's Board of Beneficence have once more renewed their helpful donations to our preachers and our work, and we are again called upon to express our appreciation of and gratitude for their praiseworthy gifts and timely aid in these directions. The Maryland Bible Society and the Maryland Tract Society are still earnestly engaged in pushing their work of visiting the desitute, praying with the needy and the sick, and distributing Bibles and religious tracts. They have about recovered from the financial embarrassment occasioned by the great Baltimore fire, and are doing their work with intelligence and zeal. I still believe the work and management of these societies deserve our hearty endorsement and co-operation.

BEQUESTS

The bequests during the year have not been numerous or large. But some gifts have fallen to us even from this source. Miss Sallie Longwell, of Westminster, Md., though not a member of our denomination, yet remembered our educational work with a gift of $5000 to Western Maryland College.

Mrs. Jane Rupp, an aged member of East Baltimore Station, died during the year. Three wills, two of them with numerous codicils, were found to have been left by her. In the first and second of these wills various interests of the Conference were provided with legacies, but in the last will these were all left out, except that East Baltimore Church (Mount Lebanon) was left $800. Under this last will Rev. G. W. Haddaway was made residuary legatee. Caveats were filed to the probating of this last will by the boards representing the interests of the Conference, which were legatees under the former wills, and by Mr. W. H. Shutt, Mrs. Rupp's business manager. The idea of a lawsuit of this kind was exceedingly distasteful to all parties concerned for the peace and purity of the church. Realizing that the brethren of the Conference Boards had entered the contest from a sense of duty to the respective interests we had committed to their care, and that Brother Haddaway felt equally bound to defend what he believed to be the last will, expressive of the final purpose of the deceased lady, I, after repeated consultations with all parties concerned, have effected an agreement between Brother Haddaway and the benevolent boards, which in the final settlement of the estate will bring to the Superannuated Fund Society, The Theological Seminary, Our Church Home, The Maryland Branch Women's Foreign Missionary Society and East Baltimore Church a reasonable portion of the property of Mrs. Rupp. Quite as much I am sure, if not more, than would have been secured as the result of any suit, after the expenses had been deducted. I think it due all parties, so far as the church is in any way involved, to say—and I say it with great pleasure—that the settlement is reasonable, equitable and in the spirit of concession, fraternity and church loyalty. And all that is here said is meant to apply to Brother Haddaway as well as to the others concerned.

In addition to the gifts here referred to I may mention that the late Judge James M. Lowe, a prominent member of our church in St. Michaels, provided in his will bequests of $1000 each to the church in St. Michaels and at Bayside. The bequests to become available upon the death of the widow. Including these last named sums the gross amount of bequests for the year will reach $9,500. Making the sum total in bequests for four years from twelve persons aggregate $55,100.00.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

The reports made to me indicate a slight increase in the number of both the Christian Endeavor and the Junior societies, with a gratifying increase in the membership of each.

The Conference Union held a spiritual, and every way beneficial, convention in the Clarke Memorial Church, Baltimore in February, and decided to raise during the present Convention year the sum of $500 for foreign missions and $500 for some special home mission work of the Conference. We shall, doubtless, hear from the new officers of the Union regarding this matter ere long. We bespeak for these efforts the hearty co-operation of every member of every society and of every pastor in the Conference.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

Western Maryland College still keeps its advanced position in the forefront of the educational institutions of our state. In well nigh every part of the Conference district are to be found men and women, active, consecrated, loyal to every interest of the denomination, who have received their training within the halls of our own Western Maryland.

The Westminster Theological Seminary continues to improve both in the number and character of its students, as well as in its curriculum. Its halls have been filled during the year, while its professors are diligent, painstaking, orthodox and finely equipped for the most important work in which they are engaged.

It is imperative that our Quarterly Conferences, various committees of examination, and the officers and teachers of our seminary shall guard diligently against the entrance of unworthy men into our ministry. A theological education can not any more than any other kind of an education make a true minister of the Gospel out of a self-seeking, time-serving, place-hunting mass of hollow vanity parading around in male attire.

Our Church Home has continued its useful ministrations to the needy old people during the year, and still appeals to all our people as the most touching and beautiful charity of the Conference. We can not as pastors too frequently emphasize the objects and needs of this most worthy benevolence of our church. The appeals of its lady-managers for Thanksgiving Day and Christmas offerings of provisions, articles of household utility, and money, should be responded to more promptly, liberally and extensively than they are.

The Maryland, and the Washington and Alexandria Branches of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society are still active, aggressive and successful adjuncts to the great missionary enterprises of the denomination. They have been more recently joined by the Women's Home Missionary Society, and should have the full endorsement and practical help of all our pastors and people.

The material proofs of the healthful condition of the church in the district are seen again by the new buildings erected during the year (three of them in fields not heretofore occupied by us as a denomination) and by the extensive improvements made to many of our older structures.

The beautiful new churches at Fawn Grove, Pa., and at Harrington, Del., have been completed and dedicated. The former in the spring, the latter in the fall. A new church has been built for the Montgomery Chapel people on Kemptown Circuit, and was dedicated in the fall. Also a new building for the Wye congregation, in Queen Anne's County, Md., dedicated in the fall. A new church has been built and paid for in East Cumberland, and one purchased and paid for in South Cumberland; also one built at Williamsville, Sussex County, Del. At these three points we enter new territory with gratifying prospects of permanent success. A handsome new church has been finished and dedicated for our Gethsemane people on Reliance Circuit, while the magnificent temple for our St. Luke's congregation, in Philadelphia, Pa., is under roof, and the interior work is being pushed to a finish with all proper speed.

The church building at Sassafras, on Warwick Circuit, has been put in fine condition, as have also Wesley Chapel on Chesapeake charge; Nassawango, on Snow Hill; Mountain View, on Kemptown; Union, on Pipe Creek; Papksley, on Parksley charge, Bethel, on Greenwood Circuit, Harmony and Bethesda, on Rowlandville, also the church at Rowlandville, Bivale, on Waltersville; Mount Taber, in West Washington, D. C.; the church at Hampden, and Mount Olivet Church, on Cecil Circuit.

East Baltimore Church has not only been handsomely fitted up, but the ground-rent claim heretofore existing against that property has been purchased and the ground deeded to the trustees in fee, while the church in Milton, Del. is being remodeled and enlarged.

The North Baltimore property has been greatly improved by the addition of a Sunday-school building in the rear of the main structure. Mardela Church has also been improved by the addition of a Sunday-school room arranged to be used in connection with the audience room of the main edifice. Improvements more or less extensive have also been made to the churches in Brooklyn, Mount Olivet and St. Paul's on Fawn Grove Circuit, to the church at Delta and to the Sunday-school rooms at Broadway, Lynchburg, West Baltimore and South Baltimore.

Our people at Towson, Baltimore County, Md., have purchased additional land for their new church and parsonage purposes. There is not a more important move in connection with our denomination adjacent to the growing City of Baltimore, than this enterprise of our church at Towson. Our friends there deserve and must have the liberal financial aid of the Conference to make their plans and efforts succeed.

The Evergreen members have purchased the ground on which their church stands, and are in line of steady, reliable progress. The lot for the church at Lauraville has been paid for, and plans are maturing for the building of a modern, substantial edifice at that point. This also needs and must have our hearty endorsement and financial assistance. Our people in the town of Felton, Del., have paid for an eligibly located lot in that town large enough for both church and parsonage.

The Conference at its last session authorized the appointment of a committee of not less than six ministers with charges nearest the town of Lewes, Delaware, to look after the work in that town. The committee was duly appointed. The services of Brother J. D. Smith, a student at the seminary, were secured during the vacation period, and he has given such attention to the interests there since as his duties at the school would permit, with the result that we have an organization of fifteen members, with many sympathizers and active helpers: a Sunday-school of forty scholars, an eligibly located corner lot 50x130 feet, free of debt, an active Ladies Aid Society of thirty members, which has raised $300 during the year, and the people are earnestly discussing plans for a permanent building to take the place of their temporary tabernacle.

A handsome new parsonage has been erected in the town of Pittsville, Md., for the circuit of that name, and an elegant new home is being built in the City of Lynchburg, Va., for the pastor of that station, while improvements have been made to the parsonages at Brooklyn, Md., Delta, Pa., Oak Grove, Va., and at many other points in the district, and North Baltimore comes forward once more with the ground on which her parsonage stands bought, paid for in full, and a fee simple title passed to her trustees.

The amounts expended for buildings and improvements during the year foot up the splendid sum of $96,159 44. The church in the Maryland district is growing so fast that we can not stop in every instance to balance the tantalizing niceties of purely worldly wisdom, but with a faith born of God, inspired by the necessities of the case and the inviting opportunities opened before us, and glorified by a long line of past successes, we leap through the open way, launch out in the deep and build to the glory of God and the Methodist Protestant Church. And we ultimately pay for all we build, too.

Joyfully I also report that North Carolina Avenue Church has paid another $1000 on her debt this year, that Broadway has also paid $1000, and has well matured plans on foot to wipe out the remainder of her debt during next Conference year: that Bedford street, in Cumberland, Md., has liquidated the entire debt on its property of $1100, leaving only the obligations on her parsonage to be discharged, which will be done after those faithful people have had a breathing spell, and that West Baltimore Church, as the result of her energetic pastor's careful soliciting, has paid another $1000 on her ground.

These amounts, together with all other amounts reported to me, show that we have paid on our debts during the year the sum of $20,212.63. Making a grand total expended in buildings and improvements, and in the payment of debts of $116,372.07, being $29,734.20 in excess of the sum reported by me last year for the same purposes. "Behold, brethren, 'what God hath wrought.'" "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits."

But the material proofs of the excellent state of the church in the district are not all, I am thankful to say.

Again has it occurred that not all the ministers have returned the cards sent them, but many more than last year have done so, with the result that there have been reported to me 1884 souls converted under our ministry during the year, and 2545 persons received into church fellowship. And shall we not rejoice together, brethren, that we have been accounted worthy of such great good things from our heavenly Father and Saviour.

Revivals have been general throughout the district, with special manifestations of power at many points—some of them far reaching and marvelous in their effects upon the communities where they were held.

It is again my privilege to report some increase in pastor's salaries during the year, and for the ensuing year. Eighteen places increased the salaries of their pastors during this year, in addition to those reported at the last Conference, in sums aggregating $1,665, while twenty-two charges have increased salaries for next year in amounts aggregating $1860 making a net increase in salaries for the two years of $3,516, in excess of the amounts reported last Conference. Adding these to the ninety-four places reported at the last Conference, we have, as the result of four years' attention to the matter, an aggregate of 134 charges which have increased salaries in the four years. Some of the amounts added were small, 'tis true, but they were in the right direction, and bring us a little nearer the goal of "Full pastoral efficiency always met by adequate pastoral support."

I submit these proofs of progress and prosperity in the Conference with a grateful heart, and renew my statement of last year with increased emphasis, to wit, "The spiritual condition of the church in the district is most gratifying," and we have every reason to thank God and take courage as we recite together these evidences of our work during the Conference year.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. The Conference not being able to compensate the secretary for his arduous and exacting labors in its behalf, not only during the sessions, but for weeks prior thereto, and for a full month after adjournment, I recommend that the secretary be permitted to insert in the printed minutes a limited number of select advertisements: provided, there shall be no additional cost to the Conference for printing the minutes, because of such advertisements, and, provided, the body of the book shall be in no wise interfered with by the advertisements, and, provided, further, that advertisements of Western Maryland College, Westminster Theological Seminary and our Book Concern and Periodical shall be admitted free. The proceeds of the advertisements to go to the secretary to compensate him in some measure for his multiplied labors in our behalf.

2. To further facilitate the plan of systematizing the minutes by grouping all related subject matter together, I recommend that the "Dead Roll" be placed immediately before "Obituaries" with the general heading or title, "In Memoriam."

3. I recommend that the secretary be authorized to prepare and publish in the minutes a "Conference Widow's Directory," giving the name and address of each widow of our deceased ministers, together with the name of her deceased husband.

On March 28th, 1906, Rev. D. M. Dibble applied for and received a testimonial of dismissal from the Conference and church.

In closing my report I must again express my profound gratitude to Almighty God for His grace, so abundantly given, and for His great providential care of me in all my travel, exposure and toil.

My work was interrupted for only a short while by temporary indisposition in the month of September. Dr. T. H. Lewis, Rev. T. R. Woodford and Rev. J. H. Straughn came promptly to my relief and kept up the plan of visitation until my strength returned. I here record my appreciation of their generous, fraternal, efficient services.

I have faithfully striven to administer the office you committed to me for the fourth time last spring with fidelity, promptness and such wisdom as I could command. Every place in the district has been visited, some charges several times.

For the many attentions I have received from the ministry and laity I express my thanks,

Very truly yours,

F. T. LITTLE, President.

OF THE COMMITTEE ON PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The condition of the work throughout the district as evidenced by the report of the president is cause for profound gratitude to our God, and for very great encouragement in the propagation of the blessed gospel of His Son under the banner of Methodist Protestantism. Our commission to go preach this gospel has been crowned with success by the addition to the membership of more than twenty-five hundred persons during the year. The growing disposition among many of the charges to increase the salaries of pastors, reveals a condition upon the part of the people especially hopeful, and gratifying, not only because it bespeaks the deliverance of the ministry from all unnecessary anxiety and care about pecuniary matters, but because it discovers a deepening interest in subjects denominational, a higher appreciation of efficient service, and a faith more precious in things spiritual, as well as the greater usefulness of the pastors themselves. The year has been, perhaps, unprecedented in material prosperity. In city and country, among the mountains and upon the plains, new churches have been erected and old ones remodelled to the joy of the people and the glory of God.

The magnificent sum of $116,372.07, having been expended for building, improving and liquidating debts, surely our people have not been penurious, nor the preachers idle. In the presence of such incontrovertable proofs of liberality, zeal and consecration, we ought to praise God, take courage and go forward. We want to make grateful acknowledgement of the generous contributions of that elect woman of our church, Mrs. Tamsey A. Reese, also, of the tangible evidences of interest in our ministers and churches by the Pipe Creek and Jefferson Benevolent Societies, and the St. John's Board of Benevolence.

We rejoice in the happy solution of what seemed to be a perplexing problem, by the adjustment of the will of Mrs. Rupp to the satisfaction of all parties concerned.

We concur in these recommendations:

1st. As to inserting advertisements in the printed minutes according to all the conditions suggested.

2nd. Changing place of Dead Roll in minutes.

3rd. Putting in minutes a Conference Widow's Directory.

4th. That Patapsco be discontinued as an appointment.

5th. The name of Rev. W. C. Stone, a probationer of the Conference, be stricken from the list.

J. M. GILL, Chairman.

REPORT B

Of The Secretary

To The Maryland Annual Conference:

In submitting herewith my financial report some explanation, I think, is due the Conference and the Secretary.

It will be observed that the cost of publishing and distributing the 1905 Minutes is greater than it has been for four years. There are two reasons for this: First, the book is larger by ten pages. Second, in response to a request of the Conference, a change was made in the statistical tables, larger type being used. This change cost $20.00 extra.

Again, the unusually large expense account is due to furnishing the Conference Room, the purchase of a new secretary's trunk and the printing and ruling of new pastors' and conference stewards' report blanks.

It is gratifying to note that, notwithstanding these extra expenses, which have been promptly met, even after paying the $100-note, due just after this session shall adjourn, there will be a small cash balance.

At the time this note was given, upon the authority of resolution 10, of last session, there was not sufficient money in hand. Nearly one hundred dollars has come into the hands of the Secretary since that time.

DEAR BRETHREN:—

The Trustees of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church herewith submit their Annual Report.

The members of the Board are as follows: J. L. Mills, J. M. Sheridan, Thomas A. Murray and Rowland Watts, whose terms expire in 1908; F. T. Little, S. J. Smith, J. H. Roberts and C. A. We submit herewith a paper which has been unanimously adopted by both the Trustees of the Maryland Annual Conference and the Baltimore Book Directory relative to the control and management of the Conference Property No. 316 N. Charles Street.

We also submit the Report of the Treasurer, and also the Statement furnished to our Board by the Book Directory as to Rents, etc., from the Property No. 316 N. Charles Street.

Respectfully submitted,

ROWLAND WATTS, Secretary.

J. L. MILLS, President.

ACTION OF TRUSTEES OF THE MARYLAND ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND BALTIMORE
BOOK DIRECTORY WITH REFERENCE TO THE CONFERENCE PROPERTY
NO. 316 NORTH CHARLES STREET.

WHEREAS, in conformity with the previous action of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, the property No. 316 North Charles Street in the City of Baltimore was purchased in the name of the "Trustees of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church," and said property has been so conveyed to said Body Corporate in which the title to said property is now solely and absolutely vested.

AND WHEREAS, under Section 7 of the Charter of said Corporation, all property acquired and held by said Corporation is so held "in behalf of and for the benefit of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church," and the management thereof by said Corporation is "under the supervision of, and amenable to, the said Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church."

AND WHEREAS, the said Maryland Annual Conference has by its action directed that the Book Directory of the Methodist Protestant Church in Baltimore City should have the use of said property, in conformity with which action said Book Directory is now occupying a portion of said premises, and has also rented out such portion thereof not at present required for the use of said Book Directory and is collecting the rental therefrom, and has heretofore accounted to said Trustees of the Maryland Annual Conference therefor, and has indicated its intention to further from time to time account to said Trustees therefor, with the distinct understanding that the net rentals therefrom shall be applied to the liquidation of the respective amounts due to said Book Directory and the Edward J. Drinkhouse Trust Estate for moneys loaned and advanced by them respectively towards purchase of said property.

AND WHEREAS, it is deemed proper that there should be some definite understanding between said "Trustees of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church" and said "Book Directory of the Methodist Protestant Church in Baltimore City" as to the use, management and control of said property, by the concurrent action of said respective Corporations.

IT IS THEREFORE UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED by and between said "TRUSTEES OF THE MARYLAND ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH," and said "BOOK DIRECTORY OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH IN BALTIMORE CITY."

1st. That it is the intention and desire of the Maryland Annual Conference (in which the ultimate control and management of said property resides), as expressed by its previous action, that said Book Directory shall have the fullest and freest use of so much of said Building as is now, or may hereafter be deemed necessary by it for the conduct and development of its business.

2nd. That said property shall be jointly managed by a Committee of three members from each of said Corporations to be appointed by them respectively; and that this Committee shall fix the rental of such portions of said Building as may not be required from time to time for the uses of said Book Directory, and determine upon any and all repair to said Building, which shall only be made upon the authority of said Joint Committee, or a majority thereof, after due notice.

3rd. That all rents from such parts of the Building as may so as above be rented shall be collected by the Agent of the Book Directory and shall be carried on the Books of the Directory as a separate fund to the credit of said Trustees of the Maryland Annual Conference and said Agent shall be authorized to pay therefrom the current expenses of said property for Taxes, Water-Rent and Insurance, and also such expenses for repairs as may be authorized by said Joint Committee; and until the entire debt incurred in the purchase of said property to the said Book Directory and to the Edward J. Drinkhouse Trust Estate respectively shall have been paid, the surplus from said rentals, after the payment of the expenses as above, shall be applied to the liquidation of the amounts from time to time due thereon and the interest thereon agreed to be paid.

4th. That whenever, because of and during the occupancy of said Book Directory of the entire building other than the Drinkhouse Memorial Room and the room now used and occupied by the Conference Officers, the rents are, or shall become insufficient in amount to cover the current expenses on said property, and the interest due the Drinkhouse Trust Estate, the Book Directory shall pay the same without any claim upon said property in any way for the repayment thereof, but the amount that may be due said Directory on account of the amount originally advanced towards the purchase of said property shall remain a charge upon said property, subject to the prior claim of the Drinkhouse Trust Estate for the amount so advanced on account of said purchase.

5th. While the Law of the Methodist Protestant Church provides that the General Conference shall decide what disposition shall be made of any surplus accruing from the business of the Book Directory, said property being held as aforesaid by said Trustees of the Maryland Annual Conference under the terms of its Charter as above recited, any surplus arising from the rental thereof forms no part of the business of said Book Concern, but is subject to the original agreement made at the time of the purchase of said property for the repayment of said loans and advances so as aforesaid made by said Book Directory and said Drinkhouse Trust Estate respectively.

6th. This Agreement is made by the Trustees of the Maryland Annual Conference and the Baltimore Book Directory in accordance with their understanding of the authority conferred by the previous action of the Maryland Annual Conference, and is submitted by them respectively to said Conference for its approval.

REPORT D

Our Church Home

The Managers of the Church Home submit the following report of the operations of the institution for the past year:

1st. The report of the Treasurer showing that there is in his hands the sum of $562.04, with the Home and all its furnishings and equipment paid for. We would call attention to the fact that the amount of $547 is due from the Lady Managers, who depend entirely upon the contributions from the churches to meet this liability. It is absolutely necessary for them to borrow from the permanent fund in order to meet current expenses, in anticipation of the collections from the churches. We also call attention to the fact that the collections last year did not meet the current expenses of the Home, leaving the Lady Managers in debt to the permanent fund, $76.62.

We have now eight persons in the Home, the largest number we have had at one time since our organization, and there will be necessarily some increase in the current expenses

We cannot too strongly urge upon our churches the necessity of supporting this good work. Many of the churches have done nobly from the beginning, and we commend their example to others who have done nothing.

We also submit the report of the Lady Managers, and ask for it the careful examination of the Conference. We do not believe any institution could be managed more judiciously than "Our Church Home."

We report an increase on receipts of money over last year, receiving this year, prior to Conference, $303.89; last year reporting $244.65.

Thirty-one Churches, to April 1st, 1906, have responded and sent us their assessments.

Last Christmas we had some donations but not as general as the previous year. Congress St, through Mr. Cathel, a well filled box. R. I. Ave., a barrel filled to the brim. Our friend Baley Bates, several cases of canned goods, then our own Church here in Westminster remembered us quite generously and often during the year. Mrs. Schureman of Newark, N. J., who so nicely furnished the library, sent us four pairs of Lace Curtains, and Brother Cathel supplied our Bookcase with quite a number of valuable books. Miss Northrup, not of our Church but a good Presbyterian, and Mrs. Crout also contributed to the collection. A kind friend way up in New York seeing my appeal in our Church paper for Hymnals, sent me money to supply the need. I would like to tell you her name but she enjoins secrecy.

Mrs. G. W. Gardner, mother of Mrs. L. F. Warner, has donated several very handsome paintings for the Library, the work of Mrs. Warner. For all of these things we are very thankful, and hope that next year will be as successful and we will have even greater things to report of this good work for the Master.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. E. O. GRIMES, President.

OF THE COMMITTEE ON OUR CHURCH HOME

It is gratifying to learn of the excellent condition of the Home, that no indebtedness exists on the property or equipment, and that eight persons are now comfortably cared for.

Much credit is due the devoted Lady Managers who have been unremitting in their efforts throughout the year, and we commend most heartily their wise, economical and successful administration of the institution.

We call upon all our Churches for more prompt and liberal support of this important work which is made necessary by the fact that contributions were not sufficient to meet the increased expenses.

It would lessen greatly the care and labors of the Lady Managers if pastors would exert themselves to have the Five Dollars expected from each church forwarded to the Treasurer of the Home before Oct. 1st, and we urge that this be done.

This generous action of the donors who gave supplies and furnishings of various kinds, as set forth in the report submitted to us, ought to stimulate others to remember the needs of "Our Church Home," especially during the gift-bestowing season of the year.

We emphasize the plan of our churches giving to "Our Church Home" the collections taken at Communion services which may not be needed for local benevolence.

1. We recommend that the 2nd Thursday of November in each year be known as Donation Day for "Our Church Home," and that all our pastors be instructed to call the attention of their congregations thereto, and endeavor to have donations of provisions, groceries and things needed to conduct the Home sent to Mrs. E. O. Grimes, Westminster, Md., and that the Editor be requested to publish due notice thereof in the "Methodist Protestant."

2. We recommend that a committee on "Our Church Home," consisting of three members, be added to the Conference's list of Standing Committees.

S. B. TREDWAY, Chairman.

REPORT E

Of The Board Of Finance

The Board of Finance submits the following report:

The report of the Secretary of the Conference with vouchers has been examined, audited, and found correct.

The report of the Agent of the President's Parsonage has been examined, but not having the vouchers, we could not audit it.

We are gratified that a balance of $1222.26 is in the hand of the Agent, and we recommend that he pay to T. A. Murray, the Treasurer of the Superannuated Fund Society, the sum of $1000 as part payment on the mortgage on the President's Parsonage.

We have laid the assessments upon the charges as ordered by the Conference, and herewith submit the List. (See table of assessments.)

J. W. KIRK, Chairman.

REPORT F

Of The Committee On Itinerancy And Orders

We report of the third year's class, that F. P. Krauss, G. J. Hooker, Clayborne Phillips and R. L. Shipley received 100 each in Greek—that F. P. Krauss, G. J. Hooker and Clayborne Phillips received 100 each in Hebrew—that Clayborne Phillips and R. L. Shipley received 100 each on thesis, and thus having complied with the promise given at the time of their ordination, are passed through the course.

Of the second year's class, P. W. Crosby received 100 in Greek, F. M. Clift 100 in theology, G. I. Humphreys 100 in thesis, 100 in Hebrew and 100 in Greek, J. E. Litsinger received 100 in Greek and, with G. E. Brown and W. B. Elliott, were passed into the third year's class.

Of the first year's class, N. C. Clough and W. P. Roberts were given 100 each in Greek and with J. T. Bailey and Carroll Maddox, were passed into the second year's class.

Of the preparatory class, we recommend that N. V. Cossaboon, James E. Massey, F. D. Reynolds and W. E. Sites be placed in the hands of the President, that C. M. Elderdice, W. L. Hoffman, R. S. Litsinger, J. D. Smith and L. B. Smith be received on trial, and we report that they are, with the exception of F. D. Reynolds and W. E. Sites, who are ministers, passed into the first year's class.

We recommend that the transfer of Rev. John A. Kittle from the W. Va. Conference be approved.

B. A. Bryan, G. I. Humphreys, J. E. Litsinger and F. M. Clift, having preached 3 years under the stationing authority of an Annual Conference, we recommend that they be ordained, each being required to pledge in open Conference, that they will pursue the course of study until it is completed.

We recommend that the renewal of the license to administer the ordinances be granted to J. T. Bailey, Eben Baldwin, N. C. Clough, W. B. Elliott, W. M. Jett, Carroll Maddox and W. P. Roberts;

And that license be granted to C. M. Elderdice, W. L. Hoffman, J. D. Smith, L. B. Smith and N. V. Cossaboon.

We recommend for admission into the Conference Rev. W. S. Hanks, who was an honored member of the Pittsburgh Conference for years, and who because of his wife's health was compelled to seek another climate, and hence for several years past was pastor of a Congregational Church in Middletown, New York, and Rev. A. C. Boyd of the Kansas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

We recommend James Dudley for aid, to the Board of Ministerial Education.

We recommend that license to administer the ordinances be granted to Willard W. Johnson.

OF THE BALTIMORE CITY CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

To The Maryland Annual Conference.

DEAR BRETHREN:—

The Board of Managers of the Church Extension Society respectfully make the following report :

The interest of the Society committed to our hand have been faithfully cared for. The assessments of the Society have been forwarded to the Treasurer earlier in the year than formerly and we have been able to meet all legitimate claims upon the Treasurer without touching the investment funds. Broadway, Keen Memorial, Evergreen and Felton have complied to the condition imposed by the Conference and received the amounts appropriated. Keen Memorial and Evergreen have made splendid progress and have growing influence for good in their respected communities. Lauraville is doing well, they have paid for the ground on which the Chapel stands and have increased attendance in the Sunday-school and Congregation, are now encouraged to proceed to build a permanent House of Worship. Help given this young Church and others in and around Baltimore will, we believe, give large and blessed returns in a few years.

The Treasurer's report will give details of the financial affairs of the Board. The Board adopted a resolution requesting the Conference to direct Pastors and Churches receiving aid from the Church Extension Society to report to the Board of Managers on the first of October and on the first of March of each year the conditions and needs of their respective charges upon blank forms to be sent to them by the Board. We believe information thus gained will be of great value to the Board, and subsequently to the Conference.

The Committee, which was appointed at the last session of the Conference to take into consideration the matter of the Waverly Church, has kept in close touch with this Society and each, in perfect harmony with the other, has striven to do the best for this church. Immediately after Conference Rev. W. M. Jett was duly assigned to the pastorate of this church. After a few months of earnest work, because of pressing business and other reasons, he was released and was succeeded by Rev. N. T. Meginniss. This brother, much beloved among us because of his readiness always to render service wherever needed, remained for a short while but was faithful and industrious. We hereby record our high appreciation of the valuable services rendered us in this work. During the early Summer some radical steps were taken by our Society which forced an issue, which, to our judgment, has brought a conditon of things which opens a new chapter in the history of Waverly.

Rev. W. S. Simms was duly appointed pastor. He began operations almost without a membership. With his accustomed energy and industry he entered upon his duties. A most remarkable transformation has taken place. A gracious revival of religion in which more than 100 souls have professed saving faith still continues. A large and growing Sunday-school as well as Congregation can now be found who constantly manifest their interest by large contributions to the pastor and various interests of the church. An arrangement has been made by which the ground rent will be provided for by Brother Simms and this congregation.

During the year, without delegating to ourselves any powers extraordinary, we have given some attention to the younger churches in and around Baltimore. We are pleased to report gratifying success at Keen Memorial, Christ Church, Bethany and Canton, and to note hopeful signs in the direction of material improvements at Payson St. and Towson. We call special attention of the Conference to the condition of Fairview and trust the Committee on Church Extension will give this church careful attention. During the early summer a bazaar was projected to enable us by proceeds therefrom, to keep the promise from this society that $500 be appropriated to Broadway to assist in the payment of her debt. This bazaar was held and we are gratified to state that the net receipts amount to more than $700. Of this amount $525 will be paid to Broadway; and almost $200 will be given to Canton, which church is now busily engaged in purchasing a lot. We have undertaken to further assist this church as our special work for the ensuing year, and have promised to raise $500 for them. We are grateful to the faithful women whose generous labors were so efficient and abundant in our recent financial undertaking.

We also record our thanks to Mrs. T. A. Reese for her continued timely assistance. We respectfully request that you appoint a pastor to Waverly under the direction of this Society.

J. S. BOWERS, President.

REPORT J

Literature

OF THE COMMITTEE

It is gratifying to learn from the report of The Book Concern, that notwithstanding increased expenditures both in the Editorial and Publishing departments, that there has been for the year ending Feb. 28th, 1906, a net gain of over nine hundred dollars. The continued faithfulness and efficiency of Editor and Agent commands the confidence, and should secure the hearty co-operation of all our people in their efforts to make the Baltimore Book Directory one of the most useful and powerful of our agencies for the advancement of all our denominational interests.

A careful reading of the comparative statement showing the results of the Book Directory for the three years from March 1st, 1903, to Feb. 28th, 1906, will show the present healthy and hopeful condition of our publishing interests.

The statement that there has been a decrease, even though but "slight," in the number of subscribers to "The Methodist Protestant," in spite of unusual and strenuous efforts upon the part of both Agent and Editor, personal visitation of the churches, and employment of a special agent, is one that should not be lightly passed over. A paper containing so many charming departments, with its Sunday-school and Christian Endeavor helps, a periodical that is invaluable as the Pastor's assistant, and so helpful in the department of Christian life, surely ought to be found in the home of every Methodist Protestant.

If our denominational organ is to receive the patronage and increased circulation that it deserves, it is evident that there must be not only continued, but increased diligence upon the part of pastors and delegates in presenting and urging the claims of this weekly messenger. We hope that the earnest appeal of the Book Directory to put The "Methodist Protestant" in every home, will call for enthusiastic effort from every member of the Maryland Conference. We urge pastors to open the way to the Editor and Publisher to present the claims of these important interests.

We note with pleasure that our Sabbath-school literature is "gradually being more extensively used and more highly appreciated." In this connection we would call attention to "The New Guide," which occupies a field peculiarly its own. It is the paper that appeals to our Sabbath-school scholars between the ages of twelve and twenty. It is a literary, as well as a religious paper, of the highest order and numbers among its contributors some of the best known writers. We learn from the Editor of our Sunday-school periodicals, that while the circulation of this paper is now over seventeen thousand, and is rapidly increasing, that only about fifteen hundred copies circulate in our own district. This is a proportion of about one-twelfth compared with that of one-third of the Sunday-school papers circulated in the same territory. We urge our Sunday-school superintendents to do all in their power to supplement the lesson papers by the addition of this attractive and instructive young people's weekly.

Methodist Protestants should patronize our own Book Concern, our efficient Agent being able to supply any book published on terms as satisfactory as can be secured elsewhere. The Good Life, the recent volume of sermons by Dr. T. H. Lewis, The Handbook of the History, Polity and Doctrine of the Methodist Protestant Church by the same author, and The Pastor's Convenient Record and Ritual still continue to meet a long felt want among our ministers.

J. L. ELDERDICE, Chairman.

OF THE BALTIMORE BOOK DIRECTORY

DEAR BRETHREN:—

We herewith submit in connection with and as a part of our report, a statement of the business of the Book Concern at the close of the day, Feb. 28, 1906, and a comparative statement covering the last three years.

From this you will perceive that we show a net gain of nine hundred dollars and sixty-two cents ($900.62) for the year, and this notwithstanding we increased the salary of the editor of the "Methodist Protestant" twenty-five ($25.00) per month, beginning the first of July, which makes his salary the same as was paid him before the reduction several years ago, and we were compelled to pay also several hundred dollars more than was paid last year, for printing the "Methodist Protestant" and for additional office help required in the development of the business, all of which is shown in our itemized statement of the year's work.

There has been a slight decrease in the number of subscribers to the "Methodist Protestant" notwithstanding the strenuous efforts put forth by the editor and agent by advertising and visiting the churches, and on the part of the directory in the employment of an agent to canvass the Baltimore City Churches and vicinity, and also the making of a contract with the Board of Managers of the paper published in the West Virginia Conference, by which we agreed to furnish the "Protestant" to their subscribers after they had discontinued publication, and which amounted to probably one hundred. While this was an expense to us we hope it may be a good investment, in securing a number of permanent subscribers from that large and growing Conference.

We believe the "Methodist Protestant" in its long history was never more attractive in appearance, more ably edited or more worthy the patronage of the entire church, and while we appreciate the efforts put forth by many of our ministers and laymen to increase its circulation, we are persuaded if we all felt that interest which would cause us to put forth enthusiastic effort, the number of subscribers in the Maryland Conference alone could be increased 50 per cent.

We beseech you to do what you can to put the "Methodist Protestant" into every Methodist Protestant home.

One of the most perplexing problems is the collection of subscriptions due, of a year's standing. We are very anxious not to give offense but how we are to collect the money without requesting them to pay the bill and urging them to do it at once, is more than we know. Brethren, if in arrears for more than a year's subscription, please do not get offended and stop the paper because we request the payment of the debt, for we need the money, as the actual cost to us of publishing the paper is more than the subscription price we ask of you.

Our Sabbath-school literature is gradually being more extensively used and we believe was never more highly appreciated. May we not hope that ere long not a Methodist Protestant School in the denomination will be found taking any other Sunday-school literature, except as supplemental to our own.

The book sales show an increase of over 50 per cent. and we believe will steadily grow as our people of this and other patronizing Conferences learn that books can be purchased on as satisfactory terms of our efficient agent as of any other concern, and that they will be helping to build up a church interest which for so many years was neglected. Brother Methodist Protestants we will certainly patronize our own Book Concern.

NOTE:—In the above Classified Statement the Methodist Protestant shows a gain of $930.84 and Merchandise a loss of $1692.04 in 1903-1904. This is due to the fact that at the time the merchandise account was charged with the entire expenses of the business. If each department had borne its own expenses of the business the conditions would have been reversed and the Protestant made to show a loss. The system of accounting was changed in 1904 with the result that each account now bears its own expenses.

REPORT K

Of The Committee On Sunday Schools

The Sunday-school is a mighty agency in the world for missionary and temperance work and the winning of young life into the Church.

We note with exceeding gratitude that "The International Sunday-school Association" has developed into one of the great missionary forces of the times, and would, therefore, urge that missionary instruction be adequately provided in all our schools.

There is no department of Church life in which so great progress has been made during the last twenty-five years as through the Sunday-school. It seems to be the consensus of opinion and the conclusion of great Sunday-school organizations and conventions:

1. That the clergy are primarily responsible for the effectiveness of the Sunday-school.
2. That parents must be awakened to a sense of their duty.
3. That the Church at large must have greater interest in the Sunday-school.
4. That teachers must be trained.

Horace Mann, the great educator, has said, "The only way to get good teachers is to make them." He referred to public school teachers, but it is equally true of Sunday-school teachers.

From the best statistics we are able to gather, we discover that from two-thirds to three-fourths of the additions to all our churches by conversion come through the Sunday-school. Some great church statisticians set the per centum as high as five-sixths.

The Sunday-school today is receiving more attention from men of thought and learning than ever before.

"Childhood is the battle ground of the Kingdom." It is in the Sunday-school that we have the unconverted in larger numbers than in any other service of the Church. It is here also that we find them at the most favorable time to be won to Christ.

We are in hearty accord with "Decision-day." That there is great need of securing a decision for Christ at an early age in the life of the child there can be no doubt.

We would call attention, also, to Children's Day and Easter services, through and by which money may be raised for our missionary work. The Sunday-school is the largest training organization in the world. A multitude of 25,614,916 was reported in the late International Convention in the city of Toronto. Of this number 29,913 are connected with our churches of the Maryland District, composed of 275 schools.

REPORT L

Of The Committee On Temperance

Your Committee on Temperance begs leave to submit the following report:

No labored argument is required to prove that the traffic in beverage intoxicants is a gigantic evil. It blights youth, destroys homes, obstructs business, corrupts politics and produces a host of other evils. The saloon is un-American, and is the antagonist of the Christian church, seeking to do what the church opposes and to oppose what the church does. It has no inherent right to exist a day. As the saloon is the creature of law and may be abolished by law, in the name of an outraged populace, we appeal to all lovers of morality and good order to join us in demanding the impartial enforcement of the laws we already have and the securing of additional legislation looking to its ultimate extirpation.

We note with pleasure the growing Temperance sentiment throughout the length and breadth of our fair land, particularly within the borders of our own Conference District.

We heartily commend the Maryland Anti-Saloon League in its efforts in having secured prohibitory laws in certain localities during the recent Maryland Legislature, but we regret that the passage of the Home Rule Temperance Bill for the state was not secured.

We also very much deplore that the Local Option Bill for Worcester County suffered a like defeat.

In accordance with the instructions of the Conference the following communication was sent to Chief Justice Lore, of Delaware:

To the Honorable Charles D. Lore,

Chief Justice of the Circuit Court, Georgetown, Delaware.

Dear Sir:—Upon this, the first day of the Seventy-eighth Session of the Maryland Annual Conference, Methodist Protestant Church, assembled in Baltimore, Maryland, the following Resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Conference most respectfully request the Court in session in Georgetown, Delaware, not to grant the application for license to sell liquor in Delmar, Delaware.

Baltimore, Maryland,
April 4, 1906.

Signed for the Committee on Temperance,
G. M. Clayton, Chairman.
A. E. Woodward, Secretary.

We offer the following recommendations:

1. That the Conference pledge its support to the Home Rule Temperance Bill of the Anti-Saloon League and that pastors and people use their best endeavor in creating public sentiment in support of same.
2. That our pastors be requested to preach at least one Temperance sermon during the year.

3. That special attention be given in our Sunday-schools to the observance of the Quarterly Temperance lesson.

4. That three ministers and two laymen be appointed members of the Executive Committee of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League, and also delegates to the State Convention to meet in Baltimore, Md., May 17, 18, 1906.

5. That three ministers and two laymen be appointed delegates to the National Convention of the American Anti-Saloon League to be held in St. Louis next fall.

6. That three ministers and two laymen be appointed a Committee to formulate and present plans at the next session of Conference for systematic Temperance work in all charges of the Conference.

7. A communication was received from Mr. Daniel Baker and Dr. Edwin B. Fenby declining to serve longer on Committee appointed by the President to arrange a public Temperance meeting at the Annual Conference. We recommend that they be excused from further service, and that they be and are hereby tendered the thanks of this Conference for most efficient services rendered.

8. The eloquent address of the Rev. Alfred Smith D.D., delivered before this Conference on Tuesday night was well received and is a worthy contribution to the forces that make for Temperance and good citizenship.

We recommend that our annual Temperance meeting be held on Tuesday evening prior to the opening of our next session and that all arrangements for this meeting be placed in the hands of the President.

Respectfully submitted,

G. M. CLAYTON, Chairman.

REPORT N

Of The Committee On Fraternal Relations

1. The Committee on Fraternal Relations respectfully recommends that the request of the Official Board of Clark Memorial and St. John's Madison Avenue Churches for the loan of Revs. J. S. Bowers and F. T. Benson as Pastors of these respective churches for the ensuing year be granted with the understanding that the law governing such supplies be respected.

2. We recommend that the request of the Board of Home Missions for the loan of Rev. A. N. Ward as Pastor of First Church, Seattle, and Superintendent of our work in that vicinity, in which request Brother Ward personally joins, be granted.

3. We recommend that the request of First Church, Pittsburg, for the loan of Rev. F. H. Lewis as Pastor be met by granting Brother Lewis a temporary transfer to the Pittsburg Conference

This Conference having received a communication through the President from the Second Congregational Church of this city, for pastoral supply, we recommend that said supply be granted if it is within the power of the President to do so.

We extend to West Baltimore Church our grateful appreciation of the use of their building, and to the membership and friends of the city for their kind and generous hospitality, also to Rev. J. M. Holmes, with the committee of arrangements—W. C. Perkins, W. T. Coulbourne, A. W. Beam, R. B. Cromer, A. W. Totten—for their thoughtful effort to do everything within their power for the convenience and comfort of the Conference.

We thank Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lewis for placing the room of their home at the disposal of the Conference for use of the President.

We thank the ladies for the labor they have performed in providing lunch, thereby saving many of our members and visiting friends long trips to their homes for meals.

We extend our thanks to the railroads which have given reduced fares to the members of the Conference, and to Rev. G. W. Haddaway, the committee on transportation for the labor performed on said committee.

We thank the Secretaries, Stewards, Collectors and Postmaster for the faithful performance of the arduous duties in their respective positions.

We record the appreciation of the press of the city for their extended and generally correct reports of the proceedings of the Conference.

It is with pleasure we make mention of the fraternal relations of Mr. Geo. T. Morris, the associate Editor of "The Congregationalist" of Boston and Rev. Oliver Huckle, D.D., the Pastor of the Associate Congregational Church of this city, who brought us the kindest expressions of fellowship.

We rejoice that we are living in the day when sectarianism and bigotry have no place in the minds of God's people, when the great evangelical churches everywhere are recognizing that they have one common mission in the world.

We extend to our sister churches whose ministers have visited us, our fraternal greetings and assure them of our hearty sympathy and co-operation in all efforts in the salvation of the world for Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. SHERIDAN, Chairman.

REPORT O

Of The Committee On Official Character

Your committee has carefully examined the reports of all pastors and we are glad to recommend the passage of the official character of every minister of the Conference.

Some things, however, are brought to our attention which, we think, the Conference ought to know and, if possible, correct:

1. Many pastors have not appointed or had elected a lady visitor to "Our Church Home;" and the probability is that they have done little to promote that important interest.

2. Some pastors report trustees not incorporated, and record objections on the part of trustees to doing so. This condition we look upon as inexcusable.

3. Rather uncertain or evasive answers are given by many in reference to giving disciplines to new members received.

All of these interests are important, and your committee thinks the rules of the Conference should be honored by every pastor, and the facts in each case be frankly reported to the Conference.

We are glad to report an improvement in collecting assessment.

The following charges are entitled to a place on the Honor Roll, they having paid all their assessments in full :

Accomac	Elizabeth	Lisbon	Salem
Alexandria	Eutaw	Lynchburg	Seaford
Allnut Memorial	Evergreen	Montgomery	Snow Hill
Amelia	Fairfax	Mt. Tabor	Starr
Baltimore	Federalburg	Newark	Stewartstown
Bedford	Finksburg	New Market	St. James
Broadway	First Church	North Baltimore	St. John's (Canton)
Brooklyn	Fox Hill	North Carolina Ave.	St. Luke's
Cecil	Frederick	Oak Grove	St. Michaels
Centreville	Georgetown, D. C.	Oxford	Susquehanna
Cannon	Georgetown, Del.	Parksley	Trinity
Chestertown	Greenwood	Payson Street	Union
Christ Church	Hampden	Pipe Creek	Union Bridge
Clinton Hill	Heathsville	Pocomoke City	Violetville

Delta	Indian River	Reliance	West Baltimore
Denton	Jefferson	Rhode Island Ave.	Westminster
Dover	Keen Memorial	Rowlandville	West Wilmington
East Baltimore	Kemptown	Salisbury	Wye
Easton	Kennedyville

It is worthy of note that some pastors who report assessments paid in full suffered a deficiency in their own salaries, and also that some other pastors received full paid salaries and report assessments deficient.

REPORT P

Education

OF THE COMMITTEE

Your Committee on Education, in view of the importance of the matter, begs leave to report separately upon the proposal to raise an endowment fund for Western Maryland College.

Nearly thirty years ago the Conference was called to the rescue of this institution, then struggling with a debt that threatened its very existence.

Now we rejoice in an institution substantially free from debt and which has now a money value five times greater than its value then.

But we cannot forget that this great expansion not only means greater enlargement of opportunity for usefulness, but also increased expense for educational appliances and methods in keeping with the times which have made this material enlargement possible, and, above all, increased responsibility of providing against loss or damage to this great interest through negligence of the ordinary precautions.

It seems to your Committee therefore, that the duty of the Conference is simple and plain. To raise $20,000 is fully within the reasonable ability of this Conference. It would be less than one dollar per member. We therefore recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to an earnest co-operation in the effort to complete an endowment fund of $50,000 for Western Maryland College in raising $20,000 in our district. We cordially open our pulpits and fields of labor for the public and private presentation of this interest, and we commend it to the liberality of our people as an object whose attainment will be of the highest importance to us as a denomination.

We note with much satisfaction that the number of boarding students exceeds that of any former year which makes for development and larger service, and that the excellent financial showing indicates diligent supervision, economy and safeguarding.

We commend most earnestly the enthusiasm, loyalty and generous action of the Alumni Association in undertaking to raise $15,000 for the College Endowment fund.

We recognize as judicious and business-like the action of the Board of Trustees in granting President Lewis a year's leave of absence from the incessant and wearing demands of his responsible position, and bespeak for him the good wishes of the entire Conference for the realization of his largest expectation, and for the further development of the resources and work of the College.

In this connection we believe that twenty years of efficient administration of Western Maryland College, during which time its material interests have been vastly increased, exceeding $200,000, its tone and standard have been steadily raised, its influence has broadened and its work has the approval of the church and the state, is a fitting time for this Conference to voice profound gratitude to God for his gracious deliverances and bestowments, and to express its unstinted appreciation of the initiative and executive abilities, the devotion and faithfulness, and the indefatigable labors and profound success of the College's honored President, Rev T. H. Lewis.

The Conference has just cause to rejoice over the report of the Westminster Theological Seminary which is in a most healthy condition, having an increase in the number of students, eleven states being represented, and four of our Conferences, including our own, are to be enriched with its trained graduates this year.

That Colleges other than our own are sending their graduates to the Seminary emphasizes the appreciation of, and the growing demand for broad culture as the basis of the most successful ministry destined to labor in constantly advancing educational conditions of our land, and lays upon us the obligation to enlarge, equip and man this most needed institution for the largest possible service to our church and the kingdom of Jesus Christ.

This is constantly recognized as is shown by the strengthening of the Faculty by the addition of Rev. C. E. Forlines, of the North Carolina Conference, who recently rendered valuable services in the Faculty of Adrian College, and is eminently fitted for the chair he now occupies.

We commend the plan of President Elderdice for Conference visitations, seeking out promising young men for the ministry, and increasing the material resources and equipment of the Seminary.

We record our appreciation of the high character of the Lectures delivered to the students, the offer of three more prizes for special departments, and of four more scholarships, and of valuable additions to the Library, and we direct the special attention of our people to these channels for their benefactions.

The property improvements have added much to the convenience and attractiveness of the grounds, and it is hoped the proposed addition to the Seminary building may soon be secured, and to this end we earnestly appeal to all our people to aid in rapidly increasing the Fund which has been started for this object.

We append an extract of a letter from Rev. J. C. Berrien, Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Education.

"The Board is aiding thirty-four men this year, a larger number than for several years. Seventeen of them are new men. Twenty were recommended, but sickness at home, and ability to get help elsewhere reduced the number.

"The beneficiaries are paying back their loans more promptly than formerly. Nearly $1,500 have been received this year." We recommend the following:

1. That the usual assessments of $1,800 be laid upon the district.
2. We recommend the assignment of Rev. H. L. Elderdice as President of the Seminary.
3. That all the pulpits of this Conference be freely opened to the Seminary authorities for the presentation of the claims of the Seminary, and that all our pastors heatily co-operate with them in the prosecution of their work.
4. That all our pastors endeavor to secure suitable young men to enter the ministry.

F. C. KLINE, Chairman.

OF THE PRESIDENT OF WESTERN MARYLAND COLLEGE

To The Maryland Annual Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN:—

At the end of twenty years' continuous service in that capacity I have the honor of submitting my annual report as President of Western Maryland College. Such an occasion is to me profoundly interesting and I am strongly tempted to indulge in reminiscences. But there is so much in the future of this institution that it would hardly be appropriate to spend any time in reviewing the past.

There is nothing specially important to report of the work of the present year. We have had about the usual attendance, but the largest number of boarding students in the history of the College. No extensive building improvements were undertaken, although several important purchases were made of books and apparatus for our laboratories. The debt has been reduced $3000. by our sinking fund arrangement, and the financial outcome of the year compares favorably with that of other years.

The one subject that seems to call for immediate and vigorous attention from the Conference is that of endowment for the College. I therefore put all other matters aside for the purpose of emphasizing this.

It is a singular felicity I enjoy of being able to report that the conclusion of my twenty years of service in this position witnesses not only marvelous changes in the material possessions of the institution, such as buildings and educational apparatus, but the accumulation of an invested fund for endowment of twenty thousand dollars. Would that the years were halved and the endowment doubled! But considering what we have had to do and what resources we have had to work with we have no reason for dissatisfaction with our present condition. We have had a great debt to pay, a great many buildings to put up, and a constantly increasing expenditure for current operations to keep up. And in view of these things it seems to me a very gratifying fact to have twenty thousand dollars in cash to provide the nucleus for a serious effort at endowment. The first deposit to the credit of this fund was made in December 1888 and it has been growing slowly ever since. We have received sundry small gifts amounting to $2,080.17; legacies, $6,498.45; Conference collections, $4,563.09; contribution from the current income of the College, $4,576.00, and interest on the fund, $1,697.06. The Conference collections received to April 1st of this year amounts to $275. If the amounts received at Conference equal that of last year our total fund will be $20,600.77. The only large amount represented in this total is the legacy from Miss Sallie Longwell, of $5,000. Miss Longwell was the daughter of one of our trustees, and her legacy will be paid over to us in a few months.

Of course endowment at the rate of one thousand dollars a year will be very inadequate. We either do not need endowment at all or we need it in different fashion from this. The fact is we have put off this matter in the face of more imperative needs, until it seems necessary to face the situation now in a way that will indicate unmistakably that our intentions are serious and urgent. I rejoice to note that our Alumni have taken the lead in this urgency. At the annual meeting of the Board last June a Committee from the Alumni Association presented to the Board a proposition to raise fifteen thousand dollars among themselves for endowment and asked the approval of the Board. The Board not only approved but met the proposition with another, that the Board would attempt to duplicate this effort by raising an equal sum among the friends of the College outside of the Alumni. The Alumni Committee have had marked success and I believe there is now a pledged fund of something like six thousand dollars in their hand. The Board has done little with its effort because it seemed necessary to get the approval and co-operation of the Maryland Conference before any systematic effort could be made.

Accordingly we are now before the Conference with our earnest request that the matter may be taken up here and carried to a successful conclusion. The plan is very simple and the effort is not extraordinarily great. We propose to ourselves as the object to raise an endowment fund of fifty thousand dollars as the first halting place in this work. We have now as I have reported, about twenty thousand of this sum. We may confidently rely upon the Alumni for ten thousand more. That leaves twenty thousand dollars to be raised in the Maryland District by this special effort. Our plan is to put an agent in the field to make a vigorous canvas and endeavor to bring the result to pass within this Conference year. It has been nearly thirty years since any effort like this in amount has been made in the district for the College and it would seem reasonable to expect that it can succeed. I trust the matter will appeal to you and that it will be given your enthusiastic endorsement and support.

One personal word before I close this report. I have been given by the Board a year's leave of absence from my duties and I shall probably spend this time in seeking recreation abroad. Arrangements have been made to protect and promote efficiently all the interests of the College during my absence. But I recognize the fact that such a step is attended with more or less loss to the institution. If there was any way by which this might be avoided I would cheerfully acquiesce in it. I do not hold my tenure of the position as imposing any restrictions on the Board, but I feel that it is absolutely necessary for me to separate myself for a while from the duties that have continuously engaged me for so long a period. The proposal for this method of meeting the necessity came from the Board and I accept it in a spirit of gratitude.

Respectfully submitted,

T. H. LEWIS.

OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE WESTMINSTER
THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

The twenty-fourth annual report of the Board of Governors of The Westminster Theological Seminary presents the following facts and figures:

1. Twenty-six students have enrolled—one more than last year. The Western Maryland College, Washington College and Kansas City University have sent us their Ministerial graduates for Theological training. This indicates that more and more our Candidates for the Ministry are realizing the need of a College course prior to their Seminary course. This year eleven states are represented in the student body: Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia. The class to be graduated next Commencement numbers ten—the largest yet—and will enter the following Conferences: New Jersey one, Muskingum two, West Virginia two and Maryland five.

2. The Faculty has been reinforced by the addition of Rev. C. E. Forlines, A. B., B. D., of the North Carolina Conference, a graduate of both Western Maryland College and The Westminster Theological Seminary, who, for the last three years, has been Professor of Philosophy and Theology in Adrian College, Michigan. With this increase in the teaching force the President can spend more time in travel, which is necessary for Conference visitation, searching after men for the Ministry and soliciting funds for the various claims of the Institution. The new Professor fills with force and fitness the Chair of Theism and Historical Theology, Dr. Cushing's qualification for the Chair of Systematic Theology is of the highest order, Professor Douglas commands the admiration of the students in Biblical Theology and New Testament Greek, Dr. Lewis is too well known as an educator for comment on his Course of Lectures of Christian Evidences, and the President keeps the students busy in the departments of Hebrew and Practical Theology. We make the modest claim that our Faculty is equipped to meet the worthiest ambition of our future ministers.

3. The Annual Course of Special Lectures has been as follows: Dr. F. T. Little—"Helpful Hints to Preachers and Pastors;" Rev. J. W. Kirk, A. M., B. D.,—"How to Conduct a Revival;" Rev. N. O. Gibson, A. B.,—"How to Build a Church;" Rev. Robert W. Doty, A. B.,—"Martin Luther;" Dr. F. T. Tagg,—"Follow Me;" Dr. Lyman E. Davis,—"Paul to the Preachers" and "The Kingdom of Common Sense;" Rev. F. H. Mullineaux,—"A Journey to the Holy Land;" Rev. Edgar T. Read,—"Religion in Art;" Rev. James L. Elderdice, M. D.,—"Temperament in Religious Experience;" Dr. R. D. Sheppard,—"University Work in Kansas City;" and Rev. G. Emil Richter,—"The Pastor's Sunday School Opportunities."

4. There has been an increase of three in the number of prizes offered,—Prof. Forlines providing one in Theism, Rev. C. L. Queen establishing one for Hymn and Scripture Reading and Mr. E. Bayley Bates founding one in Historical Theology as a Memorial to Dr. L. W. Bates. Mrs. A. B. Drinkhouse continues her Prize for Impromptu Debate, Dr. J. W. Hering renews his Prize for Hebrew, Mr. E. O. Grimes and Mr. J. Norman Wills offer again their Prizes respectfully for New Testament Greek and Thesis. There has also been an increase of four in the number of Scholarships. The record this year is: Income from the Trinity $2,000 Scholarship, Income from the Henrietta Gibson $1,000 Scholarship, North Carolina Conference Scholarship $160, Cash $119, and $100 each from the following: Mr. Joseph D. Baker, Alumni Association, Rev. William Dale, Mrs. A. B. Drinkhouse, Mr. Caleb Freeland, Rhode Island Avenue Church, Chestertown Church, a Caroline Countian, Mrs. Mary E. Baile, and a lady of Trinity Church.

5. The Library has been enriched by donations from Revs. F. C. Klein, J. E. Nicholson and C. E. Forlines; Mrs. Derr, Miss Sallie Spence and Mr. W. S. Heywood. Rev. T. G. Ogburn has presented a modern Missionary Library.

6. The improvements have continued. The aid of the College has made possible the grading and paving of the avenue which has become a popular drive for the town people and visitors. Shade and fruit trees have been added to the lawns. A Fund has been started for an addition to the Seminary Building and contributions of over $50 each for a Room have been given by Finksburg, Baltimore Circuit, Union Circuit, Mt. Tabor, Bridgeton and Millville—the last two being churches in the New Jersey Conference. Salem, Trinity, Lafayette Avenue and Alnutt have given liberally to refurnish the Rooms which already bear their names.

7. We recommend the usual assessment of $1800, the assignment of Hugh L. Elderdice as President for the ensuing year and that our pulpits be opened to the Seminary authorities for the presentation of the various claims of that Institution.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF GOVERNORS.

OF THE EDUCATIONAL ENDOWMENT SOCIETY

The Maryland Educational Endowment Society, as required in the Charter, herewith submits its report to the Annual Conference:

The regular meetings have been held, and the officers re-elected. There has been no change in our investments. The interest has been collected and paid to the Seminary. The relations of the Society to the Western Maryland College remains unchanged.

REPORT Q

Missions

OF THE COMMITTEE

A glance at the history and results of our Foreign Missionary work is full of encouragement and inspiration, and must excite devout thankfulness in all who rejoice in the establishment and growth of the kingdom of Jesus Christ. Since the inception, twenty-six years ago, of our denominational work in "The Land of the Rising Sun" our Board has sent out twenty-six missionaries, including married ladies, and has employed several times as many native preachers and teachers; has erected eight church buildings, three parsonages, a college and a night school building, the aggregate value of which is $40,000. Not less than 2000 persons have been baptized by our workers in these years, a larger number of young men and boys have attended our mission schools and college, and several thousand children have been enrolled in our Sunday-schools. We have now in Japan an Annual Conference of twenty ministers and preachers; a church membership of one thousand. Thirty-two Sunday-schools with fifteen hundred scholars enrolled and five hundred students in our College and High School. The work was never so inviting, so promising and successful as now.

But we have to record the fact that the generosity of the Church at home has not kept pace with the expansion of the work abroad. It is to be deplored that, in order to maintain the growing work in Japan and to embrace even a few of the opportunities thrust upon our missionaries, the Board has been compelled to appropriate an amount in excess of the contributions received, and a debt has been incurred. To use the homely but effective illustration of the Corresponding Secretary of the Board, the child of our faith and love has outgrown, under the divine blessing, the garments we have provided for its developing body. The receipts from the churches have not been less, but the needs of the growing work have been greater, and the living expenses of our missionaries and their helpers have been materially increased by the late awful war. In the present financial stringency the Board has thought it best to use the funds available in the support of native workers and in supplying church, chapel and school facilities necessary to efficient work rather than in the employment of the larger force of missionaries a fuller treasury would justify.

The Church cannot, or should not, retreat or retrench in this work of Foreign Missions, or turn away from all the inviting fields so ready for Gospel sowing; to do this would be to refuse the gracious answers that have been given to her own prayers for open doors and larger opportunities. The logic of events and conditions is emphasizing the need for still larger offering for his work of world-wide evangelization. The Church has done well and the Lord of the harvest has blessed her endeavors and honors her by calling to larger labor and sacrifice. There is urgent and immediate need for more money. We therefore urge upon all of our pastors and churches such diligence, liberality and consecration as shall result in larger offerings than ever before. It is not pleasant to compare the published statistics that show our Church far below the general average in contribution per member to Foreign Missions. Shall we not do all we can to correct this condition and save ourselves from this humiliation?

We call attention to the law of the Disciple which makes it the duty of pastor and superintendents to organize the Sabbath-schools into Juvenile Missionary Societies, with the provisions for a quarterly collection in the interest of Missions.

We again call attention to the Children's Day Service and urge its observance in all of our churches

Rev. E. H. Vandyke, a member of this Conference, loaned to the Board of Missions, is at present not in the employ of the Board, but is ready to respond to its call when the way is opened for his return to Japan. He is now occupying a government position as Japanese interpreter at Vancouver, B. C., and temporarily supplying the pulpit of a Methodist Episcopal Church. He asks to have his present relation as "loaned to the Board of Foreign Missions" continued, and we recommend that his request be granted.

The reports of the Maryland and The Washington and Alexandria Branches of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society herewith submitted show a commendable zeal and increasing fruitfulness. We endorse the work of our Sisters and recommend that the representative of the Woman's work, Miss M. M. Kuhns, be accorded all the courtesies and opportunities in our Churches consistent with the law of the General Conference. We further call attention to the provision of the law that makes it the duty of all pastors to encourage and to assist in the organization of Auxiliary Societies in their charges.

The work of the Board of Home Missions has been ably and amply represented before the Conference and your Committee, by Rev. J. H. Lucas, D.D., Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer. We have been greatly interested in the reports of the good work being accomplished under the direction and patronage of this Board, and we are especially pleased to know that our own beloved A. N. Ward, pastor of First Church, Seattle, Washington, has proved himself so well adapted for this important work. We have learned with great interest of the value of the property in Seattle, and respectfully recommend that this Conference advise the Board of Home Missions to sell this property promptly at the reported offer of $80,000.00.

We commend to the attention of all our pastors and churches, the excellent Easter Service program prepared by the Board of Home Missions. The use of this program and the observance of this service is not general in the Maryland District, due in large measure to the fact that Easter is so near to our Annual Conference Session; but the observance of this special day in the interest of Home Missions is showing an encouraging increase.

We note with great satisfaction, the beginning of the good work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society in the Maryland District. Mrs. George Speidel, President, reports the organization of five auxiliaries, and receipts aggregating $345.11.

Thanks to our Father above—through the efficient service of Miss M. M. Kuhns—we have added twenty-nine new Auxiliaries.

We request "that the ministers—if possible—grant Miss Kuhns the privilege of entering their respective churches in behalf of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society."

Receipts to date, $2500.00.

REPORT R

Of The Committee On Sabbath Observance

The question of Sabbath Observance is one of tremendous importance. The problems connected therewith should compel the careful consideration of the patriot, the philanthropist, and the Christian. Aside from the fact that the day is of Divine appointment, the Sabbath is necessary as an educational institution for the people, necessary for national morality, necessary for Divine blessing on the Commonwealth. The Sabbath alone makes possible the highest type of man, of citizen, of home and of nation. But our Sabbath is in peril. Greed, pleasure, licentiousness and drunkenness are stealing the sacted hours of the week, and open defiance to Sabbath laws is educating the people into general lawlessness. It is evident that unless there is increased vigilance and activity in vindicating and enforcing this holy day, we will soon have, instead of the quiet, orderly Sabbath of our fathers, a day of amusement, debauchery and crime.

Your committee therefore submit the following resolutions:

1st. That we shall keep before the minds of our people the sanctity of the day, and seek by example and precept to obtain its observance on the part of others.

2nd. That we call upon all managers of Camp-meetings to use their utmost endeavor to lessen the opportunity to desecration associated with their Sabbath session of camp.

3rd. It is our manifest duty to encourage with our patronage such as confine their business to the secular days of the week; and we warn the toiling masses that ordinary business on the Sabbath day means finally six days' wages for seven days' work.

4th. That we pronounce unequivocally against the secularization of the day by the issuance of Sunday editions of the press.

5th. That we unhesitatingly condemn the so-called "Sacred Concerts," Sunday Excursions, and other Sunday attractions, the tendency of which is to destroy the respect of the people for the day, and to make of it a holiday rather than a holy day.

6th. That we most heartily commend the workings of the Maryland Sabbath Association, and the Law and Order Leagues within the bounds of our Conference, and pledge ourselves to co-operate with those and all other agencies which seek the preservation of the Sabbath.

REPORT S

Of The Committee On Credentials

To the Officers and Members of the Maryland Annual Conference:

GREETING:—

We, your Committee on Credentials, respectfully submit the following report:

We have carefully examined all credentials that have been submitted to us and find only one case of sufficient importance to bring to your attention. The facts of this case briefly stated are as follows:

From the charge of Laurel we find two credentials, one in the hands of the Secretary and one presented by Brother Edward L. Wolfe. This happened in this way, on February 28, 1906, the members of Laurel charge elected Brother E. N. Smith as delegate and Brother James H. Driscoll as alternate. The pastor then sent in their credentials. Subsequently both the delegate and alternate sent their resignations to the Church as they found that they could not be present at this session of the Conference. Another members' meeting was called and held on April 1st, 1906, the resignations of the delegate and alternate were accepted, and Brother Edward L. Wolfe was elected as delegate in their place and stead. Brother Wolfe is present with proper credentials.

Your committee therefore recommends that the credential of Brother Edward L. Wolfe be substituted in the place of the credential of Edward N. Smith, resigned, and that he be given all the rights and privileges as delegate from Laurel charge.

We further report that the credentials have been received from all charges except Patapsco.

Respectfully submitted,

J. B. JONES, Chairman.

REPORT

Of The Committee On Christian Endeavor

The Committee on Christian Endeavor beg leave to report as follows:

We are very happy to report an increase along all lines of work. The spirit of Christian Endeavor seems to be making its way into many parts of our district, yet the increase is not as rapid as we should like to see it, nor the interest as intense amongst our people as we should desire. We offer the following data for your consideration:

We report 191 conversions for the year, which is an increase of 75 over last year, we rejoice at this increase, and yet our hearts yearn for that time when the great object of our meetings may be first and last the reaching of precious souls for the master!

The standard set for missions for this year was $1000. We are more than pleased to report $922 of that amount raised, a gain of $78 over last year, let us hope for the full $1000 for the coming year.

SOCIETIES

Junior Societies 69, a gain of 6; Y. P. S. C. E., 141, a gain of 16; Intermediate Societies 1, a gain of 1; number of charges having no Y. P. S. C. E. 36; number of charges having no Junior Y. P. S. C. E. 65.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the Junior Societies 2901, a gain of 156; in the Y. P. S. C. E. 4846, a decrease of 54. Total 7747, an increase of 102.

CONVENTIONS

The International Christian Endeavor Convention, (which was held in Baltimore,) was a great uplift to the work in the state. We may best express it in the words of Gov. Warfield "An Avalanche of Christianity is upon us."

The Maryland Conference Union held its Convention at Clark Memorial in Feb. which proved a success in many ways, although we were somewhat disappointed in the attendance from the district outside of Baltimore; we sincerely trust that the charges will give a more earnest support to this feature of our Christian Endeavor work.

We believe it is impossible to work up the interest for a successful convention of our Maryland Conference Union from Baltimore or from any other one point. Printed matter is cold and often finds its way to the waste basket. We need a personality, some one who will come in close contact with the different sections of our Conference district. To this end, The Maryland Conference Union at its last session divided the district into 6 sections or districts, and appointed a president over each district, with instructions to hold conventions and rallies. We hope that the Conference will give its hearty endorsement to this plan. Not only by a vote here but by personal and persistent effort in the different parts of the district.

If it is worth while to hold a convention, it is worth while to give it our hearty support, that the great amount of labor expended and the valuable time of the speakers, not only may prove a blessing to those who attend, but that the Church throughout the district may receive an uplift.

We call special attention to the Stubenville Convention, which meets in May, in Stubenville, Ohio. An elaborate program has been arranged, able speakers have been secured, let Maryland send a hundred delegates.

Respectfully submitted,

R. K. LEWIS, Chairman.

E. D. STONE, Secretary.

REPORT U

Of The Committee On Transportation

Your Committee on Transportation begs leave to report that the usual excursion rates to the Conference were secured over the various railway systems operating within the bounds of the Maryland District, and pleasure was taken in the distribution of card orders to all persons applying for the same.

G. W. HADDAWAY, Chairman.

REPORT VOf The Committee On Church Enterprises

To the Maryland Annual Conference:

Your committee on Church Enterprises has considered the paper from St. Lukes, referred to us, and as we, as a committee and Conference, have already endorsed the building enterprise, and the request is simply for an additional appropriation, we recommend the reference of the paper to the Church Extension Committee.

D. W. ANSTINE, Chairman.

J. E. NICHOLSON, Secretary.

REPORT WOf Special Committee On Disposition Of Waverly Church

We respectfully submit the following report :

The Church property is in fair condition and the Sunday-schools and Congregations have grown, the pulpit has been supplied by the President of the Conference, by Revs. W. M. Jett, N. T. Meginniss, W. S. Simms in the order named, and recently they have had an extensive revival of religion and a large number of accessions to the Church. We believe that the Church is now prepared to be more aggressive and useful than it has been for many years.

REPORT XOf The Committee On Establishing Mission Work At Lewes, Del.

Your Committee on Establishing Work in Lewes, Delaware, submits the following:

The committee met in Lewes on the 14th day of June, 1905, in a room of a dwelling rented as a place of worship by our little band of Methodist Protestants.

We learned that there were three churches of different denominations in the town, viz. : Methodist Episcopal, Protestant Episcopal and Prebsyterian; these three churches have a combined membership of not more than six hundred. The combined seating capacity of these three churches will not exceed twelve hundred persons.

Lewes is a town with a population from twenty-five hundred to three thousand; hence there are from twelve to eighteen hundred persons who could not be accommodated by these churches if they wished to go.

Therefore we believe that there is room for another church in Lewes. DO THE PEOPLE WANT ANOTHER CHURCH IN LEWES? We would say yes. Some of the most prominent citizens have thus expressed themselves: furthermore, we have not had a place of worship large enough to accommodate all who come to our services.

WHAT WE HAVE ALL READY. We own free of debt a corner lot on two of the widest streets in town, 50x130 ft. This lot cost $300, and is said to be worth $500. On this lot stands a frame tabernacle 24x36 all equipped for services. We have a board of trustees which are incorporated. We have an organized church of 15 members and quite a goodly number are waiting to join, a Sunday-school of 40 scholars, a Ladies' Aid Society of 30 members, this society was organized one year ago last Sept. and they have to date raised more than $500.

This work has been in charge of Bro. Jas. D. Smith, a seminary student during the last summer and a part of the winter. The work of this young man speaks for itself. It would seem that everybody knows Bro. Smith and his work, and it is the general opinion of the entire town that a Methodist Protestant Church will be built during the year. We therefore recommend:

1st. That Lewes be given a trial and that she be made an appointment of the Conference.

2nd. We recommend an appropriation on pastoral support of $100 this year.

Respectfully submitted,

C. E. DRYDEN, Chairman.

REPORT Y

Of Commissioners To Church Council

To The Maryland Annual Conference.

I had the distinguished honor at the last session of the Maryland Annual Conference to be elected a Commissioner to represent this body in a General Council composed of representatives from the Congregational, the Methodist Protestant and the United Brethren churches to meet in Dayton, Ohio, for the purpose of considering and if possible accomplishing the union of these three churches.

The Council met February 7th, 1906, and, although a more or less complete account of what was done has appeared in the Press, it seems proper that should submit to you in a more formal way a report of the proceedings, and especially of my own part therein, that you may have the opportunity of expressing your own judgment on this most important matter, and of approving or disapproving of the action of your Commissioner.

It is proper that I should say that the developments of the few months immediately preceding the meeting of the Council convinced me that organic union of the three churches was out of the question. Utterances quoted from official organs of the other churches showed no disposition or expectation towards union or anything beyond federation. I was not in sympathy with this idea, because the great meeting in New York in November, 1905, had made any other federation superfluous if not insignificant. And I believed that federation with its accompanying prolongation of negotiations would work great harm to us as the smallest of the three denominations. I believed that our General Conference had been influenced largely by this consideration to alter materially the proposition submitted to it in the paper known as the Syllabus, and to propose as a counter suggestion the immediate and sole consideration by the Council of organic union. Guided by these considerations and convictions I went to Dayton resolved not to participate in a General Council organized on the lines of the Syllabus, but to be ready to act with the representatives of the other churches however they might organize, whenever they were ready to discuss organic union. I was in full sympathy with the view that our Church was not sending representatives to organize a General Council to consider organic union in addition to other subjects, and to provide another permanent representative church body. But yet I did not see that I was precluded from meeting such a Council even if it succeeded in organizing itself, not as a member of such Council, but as a Commissioner of the Methodist Protestant Church to discuss with it the sole question of union.

However my precautionary resolution proved unnecessary. For I not only found the other churches fully represented by men chosen in regular and authoritative way, but before we ever reached the question of what kind of a body we should organize the question of organic union forged to the front and kept itself there until adjournment. It is true that a presiding officer and secretaries were elected, also a Committee was appointed to draft a Constitution for the Council, but the Committee reported at the last hour of the session that it found it inexpedient to attempt to draw up a Constitution, and the report was adopted and the Committee discharged. So that from first to last there was nothing before the Council but organic union.

Directly upon the conclusion of the address of the temporary chairman, the following paper was offered. After being read it was laid on the table until the vote for permanent officers could be taken. It was then taken up and adopted unanimously and amid great applause:—

"We, the representatives of the Congregational, the United Brethren and the Methodist Protestant churches, having assembled in obedience to the commission of our respective churches, do hereby begin our deliberations with the declaration that our first and chief business is to provide for the organic union of these three bodies; and, believing that such a result is practicable and will meet the expectations of those we represent, therefore,

Resolved, That for the accomplishment of this purpose a Committee be at once appointed, consisting of fifteen members from each of the three churches, to consider questions of Doctrine, of Polity and of Vested Interests, who shall meet at once and report to this body with a view of showing what progress is possible and to indicate what time may be necessary to complete the work."

Let me pause here to indicate the significance of this action by showing you who voted for it. First there were twenty-four Commissioners from as many Annual Conferences of the Methodist Protestant Church, representing a total membership of over 150,000 and leaving less than twenty thousand members unrepresented, counting the full members as reported to the last General Conference. Then there were fifty-eight representatives of the United Brethren Church, including all their bishops, and taken from all sections of their Church in the proportion of one for every five thousand members. There were one hundred and thirty-two representatives of the Congregational Churches chosen in a similar manner. This was the most surprising of all. A large number of these were from the New England States but they came from all over the United States. The Moderator of their National Council was one of them, the editor of their chief official organ was another, the Secretaries of their chief boards and prominent men in all their varied interests were present as delegates. I mention this particularly because an impression has prevailed that prominent Congregationalists were not interested in this movement. Yet in the sub-committee on which I had the honor to serve were the chief justice of the Supreme Court of Connecticut, the president of the International Y. M. C. A., a prominent lawyer of Cleveland, another from Chicago, the Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, and the Secretary of the Publishing House. These were the Congregationalists I became best acquainted with through committee duties, and every one of them was enthusiastically in favor of organic union. The same thing could be said of the United Brethren. It would perhaps be hazardous to say that these churches had no stronger men anywhere than were in that Council, but they are extremely fortunate if such men as we met there are plentiful among them.

This then was the body that unanimously adopted and heartily applauded organic union as the first and key note of the meeting.

The Committee provided for in the paper referred to, afterwards increased to twenty-one from each church, met at once and divided into sub-committees of twenty-one, seven from each church, each delegation making its own assignment of its members, to take up the three subjects proposed for consideration. And so we had three committees of twenty-one members each, one to consider Doctrine, one to consider Polity and one to consider Vested Interests. The plan of work was as follows: each sub-committee organized with chairman and secretary and spent its whole time on the subject committed to it. When it was ready it reported to the Committee of sixty-three. This Committee of sixty-three considered, amended, finally adopted the report and then referred it to the full delegation of each church, who considered it in a meeting of the delegation and then reported the vote of the delegation to the Council. So that on each important question there were always but three votes the Congregational vote, the Methodist Protestant vote, and the United Brethren vote, and nothing could be carried unless it received three votes. In this way it made no difference that the Methodist Protestant delegation was the smallest, except what it lost in the multitude of counsellors, because each delegation counted one, and it took three to make a majority.

The first sub-committee to report was that on Doctrine. The work of this Committee was the easiest, as it proved, owing to the willingness of the Congregationalists, contrary to the popular idea, to unite in a Declaration of Faith. One of their number was understood to be the author of the report, and it won deserved applause for beauty of expression as well as comprehensiveness of statement. As a paper drawn up hurriedly I do not know how its value can be overestimated. It deserves the most careful study, and as it has never been printed exactly correct I give it here entire.

THE DECLARATION OF FAITH

We, the representatives of the Congregational churches, the Church of the United Brethren in Christ and the Methodist Protestant Church rejoice at this time to enter into union with one another, through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, in the love of God and for fellowship in the Holy Spirit. In this solemn act of faith and obedience toward the great Head of the Church, we do most humbly and confidently make confession of our faith and heartily renew the consecration of our lives to him and to the service of mankind.

1. Our bond of union consists in that inward and personal faith in Jesus Christ as our divine Saviour and Lord on which all our churches are founded; also in our acceptance of the Holy Scriptures as the inspired source of our faith and the supreme standard of Christian truth; and further, in our consent to the teaching of the ancient symbols of the undivided Church, and to that substance of Christian doctrine which is common to the creeds and confessions which we have inherited from the past. But we humbly depend, as did our fathers, on the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all the truth.

2. We believe that God, the Father and Lord of all, did send his son Jesus Christ to redeem us from sin and death by the perfect obedience of his holy will in life, by the sacrifice of himself on the cross and by his glorious resurrection from the dead.

3. We believe that the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God and of Christ, moves in the hearts of men, calling them through the gospel to repentance and faith, awakening in them spiritual sorrow for past sin and confidence in the mercy of God, together with new desires and a new power to obey his will.

4. We believe that those of the sons of men, who, hearing God's call of divine love, do heartily put their trust in the Saviour whom his love provided, are assured by his word of his most fatherly forgiveness, of his free and perfect favor, of the presence of his spirit in their hearts and of a blessed immortality.

5. We believe that all who are through faith the children of God constitute the Church of Christ, the spiritual body of which he is the head; that he has appointed them to proclaim his gospel to all mankind, to manifest in their character and conduct the fruit of his spirit, that he has granted them freedom to create such offices and institutions as may in each generation serve unto those ends, and that for the comfort of our faith he has given to his Church the sacred ordinances of baptism and the Lord's Supper.

6. We believe that according to Christ's law men of the Christian faith exist for the service of man, not only in holding forth the word of life, but in the support of works and institutions of pity and charity, in the maintenance of human freedom, in the deliverance of all those that are oppressed, in the enforcement of civic justice, in the rebuke of all unrighteousness.

And possessed of these convictions, both as truths which we do most firmly hold, and acts of faith which spring from our hearts, we do, therefore, in the happy consummation of this union and in the name of all the churches which we represent, commit ourselves, body, soul and spirit to the faith, love and service of him who made us and saved us, the everlasting God, our Father, Redeemer and Lord. To him be ascribed all praise and dominion and glory, world without end. Amen.

The next sub-committee to report was that on Vested Interests. This committee spent much time in collecting information and in considering the probable difficulties in the way of uniting the corporations of the different organizations. Their report simply expressed the general conviction of the committee as to the practicability of union and left the details to be worked out later. But the difficulties were faced squarely and considered with the aid of trained legal minds, as I have indicated. Their opinion simply amounts to this, that if the churches want to unite there is no legal impossibility in doing it. It will take months of patient, studious thought to bring it about, but both courts and legislatures may be relied on to facilitate union if the churches want it.

The last sub-committee to report was that on Polity. What they submitted was crude and rather vague, not satisfactory as a finality to any of the delegations, but accepted by all as a basis of working out the union.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON POLITY

1. PRINCIPLES

(a) The unit of our fellowship is the local church, and the character of our fellowship is that of a representative democracy.

(b) Our co-ordinate principles are freedom and fellowship, a freedom which leaves each local church free in its separate affairs, a fellowship which unites all the churches for mutual care and co-operant action.

In accordance with these principles we recommend the following plan of organization:

2. THE VARIOUS CONFERENCES

(a) The local churches shall be left free to conduct their worship and business as their present customs provide.

(b) It is suggested that so far as may be the churches in separate districts be united in district conferences, which shall provide for fellowship and care of the churches connected with them.

(c) There shall be constituted annual conferences of the ministers and representatives elected from churches and pastoral charges; and their territory limits shall be fixed by a commission of the representatives of the three bodies in the state.

(d) It is recommended that the national conference shall be constituted after the following manner:

Each district conference shall present to the annual conference the names of two persons, one lay and one clerical, from which as a whole the annual conference shall elect delegates to the national conference on the basis of one to every ten thousand and one for every major fraction thereof. In case an annual conference is not fully organized into district conferences, the annual conference shall elect such delegates according to its own methods.

The annual conference shall also be empowered to elect, on the same basis of representation, delegates to the national conference, provided, however, that each annual conference shall have at least one delegate.

We further recommend that the appointments be distributed as equally as possible between the clerical and lay delegates.

It shall be in the power of the national conference to change the ratio of representation according as necessity may require.

3 OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

(a) In the national conference there shall be elected a president who shall preside over this body and hold office until the next national meeting; he also shall give his whole time to the work of the united churches, and annually in connection with one representative from each department of church work, he shall hold meetings to plan for the work of the church.

(b) In each annual conference there shall be elected a committee to aid in keeping the churches supplied with pastors; and each annual conference shall determine for itself the mode of supplying the churches with pastors.

(c) In each annual conference there shall be elected one or more superintendents who may preside at the sessions of the annual conferences and over the meetings of the committee of ministerial supply, and shall give their whole time to the general work of the church within the bounds of their respective annual conferences. Provided, however, that the conference may associate a chairman with the superintendent in directing the work of the conference sessions.

4. MINISTERIAL STANDING

(a) All ministers in good standing in any of the denominations represented in this union shall be ministers of this new body. All licentiates shall retain their standing for the period of their licensure.

All ministers under suspension shall look for relief from their disabilities from the body that imposed the restrictions. This shall hold until new rules are formulated for licensure, ordination and ministerial standing.

(b) Ministerial standing shall be in the district conferences or in the annual conferences as may be determined by each annual conference.

The following supplemental paper from the United Brethren delegates was presented.

It is understood that the provisions here included do not set aside the principle of the so-called itinerant plan where now in operation. Furthermore, it is fully understood that the best plans and efforts shall be adopted to secure to rural and scattered congregations everywhere the most effective ministerial service and to promote wide and genuine evangelization in every accessible field. As one provision to facilitate the accomplishment of these ends the churches shall adopt as far as possible, and as deemed wise, a common church year.

While not the most important phase of the question, this of Polity is perhaps that which will be most discussed. And it is well to make a preliminary study of what has been submitted because although this may be changed before it is finally adopted, yet it shows in outline what the new organization will most likely be.

Some reporter's remark has been published crediting Methodist Protestants with a generosity to which I fear they are not entitled, or, at any rate, which they were not called upon to exercise; to the effect that the Methodist Protestants had given up everything in order to enter the union. On the contrary it will take but little study to convince one that this new organization outlined in the committee's report is more like the Methodist Protestant Church than it is like any other now existing. And this is not strange when it is considered that the Congregationalists and the United Brethren represented in their church polity almost opposite ideas and the Methodist Protestant Church was nearer to each of them than one was to the other. It is no discredit to our representatives on the sub-committee on Polity to say that we had less to do with shaping that report than any other. Our men felt that when the Congregationalists and the United Brethren agreed they would be found somewhere in our locality.

Glancing at this paper with a view of summarizing we get the following result:

The unit of the organization is the local church and the character of the organization is that of a representative democracy. The Methodist Protestant Church was built on these Pillars.

The assemblies of the organization are, (1) The District Conference, (2) The Annual Conference, and (3) The National Conference. We now have them all except the first, and we used to have that. The ratio of representation is:

two to ten thousand members, and it is proposed to elect them by a rather complicated plan. The plan aims to mediate between the Congregational plan of electing their delegates directly by local churches, and the plan of electing by the Annual Conferences in use among the United Brethren and us. In the suggested plan one-half of the delegates are to be elected by the Annual Conferences from nominations made by the District Conferences, and the other half by the Annual Conferences directly. But even here it makes one smile to think that we have something of a survival of our wonderful Electoral College.

The officers of the new organization are, (1) those elected to preside over the Annual Conferences and to devote themselves to the work of the Conference at large, who are to be called Superintendents. Each Conference may elect one or more of these. And (2) the National Conference elects a President who gives his whole time to the work of the Church at large and holds somewhat the position of a general superintendent but is to be called President. Thus we have given up the name President for that of Superintendent, as the head of our Annual Conferences, and we have accepted a traveling General Conference President.

The laws of the new organization are not touched upon in the scheme presented. Just what provision for legislation will be made in the final plan is therefore a matter of conjecture. But from the action taken on an amendment proposed to the third article of the present scheme, leaving each Annual Conference to determine for itself the method of appointing pastors to churches, it seems probable that District Conferences, Annual Conferences and National Conferences will each have their respective fields of operation marked out and will be given legislative authority in that field. In such a case the Maryland Conference, for instance, could enact its present book of discipline as its law, and no change whatever would be made in its methods or customs.

I do not wish to make any argument for my Conference to fall into line with this movement. And I trust that argument may be delayed until every one has had an opportunity to canvas the situation thoroughly for himself. What we need above all is patience with one another. Those who feel enthusiastic in favor of union should moderate their transports and remember that there are two sides to this question. Nothing but harm can come of pressing this question unduly on the minds and consciences of other brethren. And those who do not favor union should be patient and wait for light and warmth. It is not yet certain whatever may be our fears, that union is certainly wrong or inadvisable. But it is certainly before us and we must give it fair and faithful examination.

Another thing should be kept in mind. We have not taken the irrevocable step in union. The committees must work out the details. These details must be reported to another meeting of the Council and adopted by the whole body of delegates. Then the completed plan of union must be submitted to the General bodies of the three churches and be by them referred either to the Annual Conferences or Associations, or to the local churches for ratification. This means a period of at least three or five years. So we are still Methodist Protestants and may remain so, certainly will remain so for a number of years. This means that no part of our present work is to be dropped or slackened. We must get all we can and keep all we have in any event.

And I think it especially important, in view of our immediate surroundings, that we should not submit to the suggestion that may be made by others that we are going to give up Methodism. As I have shown in the sketch of the organization proposed we will have scarcely any recognizable change in our working plans as a church. Still less will we have any change in the spirit of the organization. Methodism as a spirit has gone far beyond its original boundaries. And even if we should not have the name retained in our new style it would be strange indeed if we should be found willing to renounce our precious heritage of experimental religion when the churches we propose a union with are as much attached to this phase of religious life as we are. I make the prophecy that if this union takes place the Maryland Conference will still be the Maryland Conference, will still fill its pulpits as it now does, will still call men to repentance and bring them into the church as it now does, will still preach the same doctrines and enjoy the same experiences which have made it such a power for good in its history. For my part, union or no union, I expect always to be a member of the Maryland Conference and I expect never to be anything else but a Methodist, although I will not insist on the name when I can have the thing by any other name.

Finally, this report would be incomplete if I did not say something of the spirit in which these matters were discussed and acted upon, although this is a difficult task, and to represent it properly is quite impossible. If this Conference had been bodily present in the Council I feel sure my report would seem tame and inadequate to you. You would feel that delay was vexatious and discussion useless. For this was a wonderful gathering from every point of view. The sanity and freedom from extravagant notions in its discussions were wonderful. The sweetness of spirit and unselfishness were wonderful. Most wonderful of all was the unanimity with which every action was adopted. It is almost past belief that so many men gathered together for the first time from so many different localities, of different training and traditions, should harmonize so fully on questions which concerned their dearest interests, and as if they were all of one religious family. What wonder if those present accepted these as signs that we were about our Father's business in our Master's way, and that the swiftness and smoothness of the movement of events to unexpected conclusions was the work of the living Spirit which was in the wheels! And as those great moments came again and again during the deliberations, when discussion and planning and argument were swept out of sight and the place was shaken where we were assembled together, and men grasped hands in silent pledge, and no utterance seemed possible but to break forth in "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," what wonder if "we were all amazed," and glorified God, saying, "We never saw it on this fashion;" "this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes."

Respectfully submitted,

T. H. LEWIS.

Resolved 1, That we strongly disapprove of the secret ballot for the removal or the return of the pastor.

Resolved, 2, That we condemn the complimentary vote that ask for the Pastor's return in the public meeting and seeks his removal at the annual conference.

Resolved, 3, That every Pastor be required to have read these resolutions in his quarterly conference.

J. M. HOLMES.

Resolution 14

To Pay Pastor's Moving Expenses.

WHEREAS, The Discipline of our Church, page 28, grants to the Annual Conference the right to "make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to defray the expenses of the itinerant ministers and preachers," therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the judgment of this conference that the charge to which a minister or preacher is assigned should pay the moving expenses of the incoming pastor.

LOUIS RANDALL.

Resolution 15

Book of Sermons.

WHEREAS, There has come from the press this Conference year a book of sermons entitled "The Good Life" by Rev. T. H. Lewis, D.D., and

WHEREAS, It is a valuable contribution to the religious world, and especially to Methodist Protestant Literature, well worthy the widest circulation; therefore be it

Resolved, 1st, That we congratulate Dr. Lewis on his splendid book, and Resolved, 2nd, That we commend it to every Methodist Protestant, indeed every Christian as a valuable book to have in his library, and sincerely hope that one and all will provide themselves with a copy.

JOHN H. S. EWELL.

Resolution 16

Church Extension Steward.

Resolved, That the steward for Church Extension be authorized to borrow the amount of the deficiency amounting with interest to $388.26, so that all claims may be met by the society and paid by the steward.

E. S. FOOKS.

Resolution 17

Report of our Commissioner.

Resolved, That we have heard with great pleasure the interesting report of our Commissioner, Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., who so faithfully represented this Conference in the General Council held at Dayton of the Congregational, United Brethren and Methodist Protestant Churches. We are delighted to be informed concerning the broad and blessed spirit of fellowship and fraternity which was largely manifested throughout the sessions of this large gathering of representative men. The harmony of action, the readiness of agreement and the manifest desire to gather together the membership of these respective denominations into one great ecclesiastical organization under the gracious direction of the Spirit of God, have most profoundly impressed us.

While we do not at this time feel called upon to vote upon the question of organic union, because of the incompleteness of the basis of union still in the hands of duly appointed committees, yet, we do hereby express our profound conviction that the Spirit of God moved mightily upon the minds and hearts of this great gathering of ministers of His truth and free from the blindness of prejudice or the un wisdom of enthusiasm not born of knowledge, we submit ourselves to the unerring influence of the Spirit of truth, earnestly desiring, in this most important matter, to do what He may want us to do.

OBITUARIES

Rev. John Jackson Murray

John Jackson Murray was born in Hagerstown, Md., May 8, 1824. While attending the Allegheny Academy, at Cumberland, Md., he was converted to God, under the ministry of Rev. J. K. Nichols, and joined the Methodist Protestant Church in 1839, at the age of fifteen years. On Christmas Day, 1841, he was licensed to preach and received into the Maryland Conference at Georgetown, D. C., April, 1842. He had chosen and begun his lifework and was a member of the Conference when he was eighteen years old. This promptness in decision and tenacity of purpose characterized him in the sixty-three years of service that followed, and he said to his pastor, Dr. Shaffer, on his death-bed: "Preach the Gospel. After I had made up my mind to enter the ministry I never thought of anything else." It is a beautiful fact that Dr. Murray's religious life began with his intellectual life, and while attending school away from home, seeking the best earthly knowledge he could attain to, he gained a knowledge of God and divine things, and under the sweet influence of James K. Nichols and the Gospel he preached, was made acquainted with the Son of God, to whose service he devoted his long and useful life. He never separated these two pursuits during his life. Learning and religion joined hands in his heart when he was a boy, and when he reached his eighty-first year he was still a Christian and a student. Study and prayer were his two chosen companions who helped him in all his work on earth, and in death prayer simply changed her name to praise, and they are both with him yet. As a Christian, he was intensely conscientious, and would do what he thought was right regardless of the opinions of others. And if he carried his conscience into small things—yea, everything—it was because there was nothing small in his estimation that went to make up a Christian character or that in any way affected his work and influence as a Christian minister. When he gave himself to God all his intentions and purposes were converted, so that his one great object in life was to do right—only right—and always right; and though many differed from him in opinion and opposed him in his ideas and plans in Conference work, few, if any, ever doubted his deep sincerity or the fact that he fully believed his course was right.

As a student, he was careful, painstaking and really laborious. He possessed the talent for hard work and improved his talent, and was able to study long and patiently without weariness or discouragement till he had mastered his subject. With this ability, which is so essential to good scholarship, he passed from one subject to another, and studied the languages, medicine, general literature and divinity, so that he was recognized wherever he was known as an "able minister of the New Testament," a scholar and a gentleman.

His abilities and his attainments soon placed him in the front rank of the men of his Conference. He was honored with all the offices to which any one could be elected, so he served as president of his own Conference, president of the General Conference, chairman of the most important committees to shape the polity of the whole Church, and on the general boards, whose work and duties required intelligence, faithfulness and knowledge—in fact, wherever ability was needed Dr. Murray was there. In social life he was a gentleman, kind, polite and careful of the feelings and rights of others, and the one who has the best right to speak on this subject says: "Dr. Murray lived daily what he professed and preached, and it was a privilege and a blessing to have lived with him." He deeply impressed his friends with the excellences of his character and the kindness of his heart, who loved him because "he was a good teacher, a fine debater, a splendid preacher, and, above all, a lovely Christian gentleman in all things, true to his convictions and to the Methodist Protestant Church, and true in his love for his brethren. A finer Christian character would be hard to find."

Dr. Murray's abilities as a preacher and administrator caused him to be sent to the most prominent churches in his Conference. In the pulpit he was graceful, forceful and at times eloquent, and at all times earnest and devout, desiring only to preach the pure Gospel of the Son of God. He believed in and did much personal work and made many earnest appeals to individuals to give themselves to Christ and His service. He manifested a deep interest in every good work, and his sympathies were broad enough to lead him to participate in every enterprise that worked for the advancement of the kingdom of God. When the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Protestant Church was organized, he was with them as counsellor and adviser in planning their constitution and laying out their work. "He was present at the meeting when the first missionary of the Church took her leave, and when we held our twenty-fifth anniversary he stood with the charter members in front of the altar and joined in the service of hand-shaking while the hymn, 'Blest be the tie that binds,' was sung. But today, with a more perfect knowledge and joy he sings in the land of life, everlasting life, and in the society of the just made perfect. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society respect and honor his memory and wait to join him with others in the bye-and-bye."

In his last sickness, shortly before his departure, he said to his pastor: "Happy if with my latest breath I may but gasp His name. Preach him to all and cry in death, 'Behold, Behold the Lamb.'" And so he passed into the presence of the Master that he had loved and served for sixty-six years. His funeral services were held at his home, in Bellevue, Pa., by Rev. Dr. Shaffer, and then the remains were brought to Baltimore and funeral services were conducted by the chairman of this committee at West Baltimore Station. Dr. Tagg, president of the General Conference, offered prayer. Dr. William S. Hammond, who since then has passed over the river and is now with Dr. Murray in the upper sanctuary, read the Scriptures. The chairman of this committee delivered an address, and was followed by Dr. T. H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College, and Dr. F. T. Little, president of the Maryland Conference. Many of his friends and ministerial brethren followed him to his last resting place, where his body is awaiting the resurrection of the just.

To his widow and children we can only offer our congratulation that they have been blessed by such a husband and father, and that they have such a sure hope of a happy reunion in the home that death never enters.

Amen. So let it be.”

Rev. William Sim Hammond

This name has long been familiar to all who knew much about the Methodist Protestant Church. It represents one of the bright, wide-awake, interesting personalities of the Maryland Annual Conference. He was in the forefront of the activities of the church for many years, but he was so youthful in spirit and full of activity that he was seldom thought of as one of our older men. Only since bodily affliction compelled his retirement from active work in 1901 have we realized that age and infirmities were upon him. He had been a great sufferer for many months, and his release came May 14th, 1905.

Dr. Hammond was the oldest son of Nathan and Mary Hammond, and was born near New Market, Frederick county, Md., August 5, 1832. He was converted at an early age, and soon after coming into the church he began to exercise himself in public religious services. He made his first attempt to preach when only sixteen years old. When less than nineteen he applied to the Maryland Conference, then in session at Harper's Ferry, and was received into the itinerancy. His first appointment was to Queen Anne Circuit, as assistant to Dr. S. B. Southerland. He is remembered and described as then “a young man of medium height and slender form, courteous, entertaining and attractive in social intercourse, winning the respect of all by his deportment. In the pulpit he had rare command of himself for a beginner, and his manner was above criticism. His voice was fine and strong, and he had natural elocutionary powers, which gave promise of his mature and successful ministry. Zeal for Christ, and tireless activity in the pastorate, marked his life then, as in all his subsequent career." He had been a student in the home of Rev. Dr. John S. Reese, and he manifestly profited greatly by the example and teaching of this eminent man.

His subsequent appointments were as follows, in the order named: Kent, Talbot; First Church, Washington; Anne Arundel, Harpers Ferry, Lynchburg, Broadway, Lexington Street, Jefferson, Lexington Street, Newark, Westminster College Agent; Ninth Street, Washington; Star, Chestertown, East Baltimore, President, Newark, Union Bridge, Allnutt Memorial, Georgetown, Broadway. Retired in 1901.

In the third year of his ministry he married Miss Addie Groome Kennard, of Green Point, Kent county, Md. She was an interesting and refined Christian woman, but after a few years of happy wedded life she died. He remained a widower about ten years, when, on March 6th, 1866, he married Miss Elizabeth A. Thomas, of Baltimore. She, with their only daughter, Florence, well and favorably known for her active Christian work throughout the state, now mourn their irreparable loss in his departure.

Dr. Hammond early in his career won recognition as an attractive and successful man. For many years he filled a large place in the Maryland Conference. He was attentive to business in the sessions, earnest and eloquent in appeals in behalf of general interests, and always kind and brotherly in his intercourse with the ministers and laymen. He was a popular man in the Conference and throughout the district. His attractive talents and winning personality made him a host of friends. And he had few, if any, enemies. The church trusted and honored him by giving him places of great responsibility in the pastorate, and electing him to the presidency of his conference, and many times to the General Conference. And of this latter body he was president four years. The church did well to trust him. He was capable and faithful. He loved the church of Christ and was loyal to the principles of the Methodist Protestant Church, to which he had given the wholehearted service of his life.

The degree of D. D. was conferred upon him by Washington College, Tennessee, of the Presbyterian Church indicating the esteem and appreciation of his character and worth beyond the bounds of his own church. As a preacher he was earnest, evangelistic and eminently successful. He had rare gifts of expression. In feature, gesture and voice he was attractive and he was sure of an attentive and sympathetic hearing of the Gospel message. As a pastor he was laborious and sympathetic. In the sick room and in all the perplexing problems that troubled his people he was the wise counsellor and friend. He bore their burdens and so fulfilled the law of Christ. His gentle and loving spirit and devotion to the welfare of the church made him eminently successful in healing breaches and harmonizing differences in the local church. He was distinctively a peace-maker among men and he is loved and honored in many places today for his labors in that direction.

It is a great loss to the church and the world when such men die. His loving spirit and cheerful greeting scattered sunshine along the pathway of life, and made life happier and the burdens lighter, for many discouraged and weary ones. His home life was simple and kind, as his church life was useful and honorable. He was a clean, high-toned Christian man in private life, as in his public career. He has joined the company of the great and good men who have gone from our conference into the church triumphant.

We will for the remainder of life's journey miss the cordial greeting and delightful fellowship which we have long enjoyed, but it is well with him. The pain and conflict of life are over. In the faith and hope that he preached to others, through more than fifty years, he died. We shall see him again beyond the shadows and dwell with him in the Father's house forever.

The funeral services were in charge of Dr. F. T. Little, the President of the Conference. We were led in prayer by Dr. T. H. Lewis before leaving the home, and the public services were at West Baltimore Church, Dr. F. T. Tagg, J. M. Holmes and J. D. Kinzer participating with the president. The interment was in Loudon Park Cemetery.

Rev. George Durbin Edmonston

Rev. George Durbin Edmonston died June 2, 1905 at the residence of his son near Pittsburg, Pa. So, after a protracted illness, passed a good soldier of Jesus Christ. Brother Edmonston was born in Washington, D. C., March 7, 1844, his parents being members of the old Ninth Street Methodist Protestant Church. While yet a boy he became interested in the Sunday-school and choir of the church, and later actively engaged in mission work throughout the city. He enlisted in the Washington Guards and served several months in defense of the city. Feeling impressed that he should preach the Gospel, he applied to the Maryland Annual Conference for admission in the year 1864; was received on trial; ordained in regular course and served successfully West Baltimore, New Market, Queen Anne's, Belair, Frederick, Severn, Bedford, Howard and Finksburg charges.

He withdrew from the Conference at Lynchburg, Va., in March, 1876, and engaged in farming, but re-entered the active ministry in 1885 and was appointed to Powellville. He next served in order: Surry, Sussex, Potoimac, Grove, Bedford, Conquest and Crumpton, retiring in the spring of 1899, because of physical disability. It was his intention to rest for one year and take up work the following spring, but in October a severe attack of illness left his hearing so impaired that he decided not to attempt active work again until this trouble was relieved. After two years of disappointed hopes in this matter he concluded not to undertake active work again.

Brother Edmonston was a loving husband and father, popular as a pastor and a faithful minister of the Gospel. That he might the more acceptably preach its truth he mastered the Hebrew of the Old Testament Scriptures. "His sermons were strong and logical, always carefully prepared and delivered in such a forceful manner as to hold the closest attention from beginning to end." "He was loyal to Jesus Christ as a minister and to the Methodist Protestant Church as a member." The late years of his life were spent in the home of his son, first at Savage, W. Va., not far from Cumberland, and then at Longview, near Pittsburg. During this time he frequently assisted his brethren, preaching in their absence and serving in such other ways as opportunity afforded.

His wife was Miss Eleanore Francis Smith, of New Market, Frederick Co., Md., whom he married April 14, 1869, one son and only child, Mr. George H. J. Edmonston, two brothers, Messrs. Brook W. and Samuel H. Edmonston, and one sister, Mrs. M. V. Marsh remain to deeply lament the loss of their loved one. May the Good Spirit whose words in Romans twelve he made his life rule be their comfort forever.

Rev. William Augustus Crouse

Rev. William Augustus Crouse was born in Westminster, March 24, 1824, and died Jan. 11, 1906, having almost completed his 82nd year. He was the third son, and last survivor of his father's family. His parents were William and Margaret Crouse.

Brother Crouse was twice married. His first wife, and the mother of all his children, was Miss Matilda Lee Shepherd. His second wife was Miss Boring. She was an estimable Christian woman and preceded him to the better land less than a year. His first wife and two sons died of scarlet fever all in about one week when he was 28 years old. "This was his first great sorrow and it had a deep and lasting influence on all his subsequent life." Bro. Crouse leaves behind him two sons, Rev. Thomas O., Pastor of Congress Street M. P. Church, Georgetown, and Prof. W. S. Crouse, Principal of Annapolis High School, and one daughter, Mrs. Theodore Derr, and several grandchildren, one of whom, the daughter of Mrs. Derr, is the wife of Rev. Louis Randall of the Maryland Annual Conference.

Bro. Crouse was converted when he was about eighteen years old. He was afterwards licensed to preach, but did not enter the Conference until he had passed his 40th year. His first appointment was Williamsport circuit. Dr. Southerland says: "I gave, as President, W. A. Crouse his first appointment and during that year my intimacy with, and my friendship for him were formed. I became very warmly attached to him. He was social, very spiritual and an excellent man every way. A useful and beloved preacher by all whom he served."

His subsequent appointments were as follows: Concord, 1868-71; Choptank, '72-'74; Leipsic, '75-'76; Sussex, '77-'79; Middleway, '80; Accomac, '81-'82; Preston, '83-'84; Crumpton, '85-'87; Deer Park, '88-'90; Concord, '91-'92. He was superannuated in 1893.

When Bro. Crouse was going into manhood, there was no High School in Westminster and no College on "The Hill," yet, like many others of his day, he managed to acquire a fair English education, and by a careful study of the Bible with such help as came in his way, he qualified himself for his high calling as a minister of the Gospel. The following testimonials to his work as Pastor and Preacher from former parishioners, I think are worthy of record. Bro. Jas. J. Brandenburg writes as follows: "To me dear old Bro. Crouse has been an inspiration, and it gives me pleasure to testify to his worth as a minister of the gospel. As a preacher, he had power with God, because his faith was strong. His trust was as a little child in a loving parent. How often have I heard him exclaim: 'I know that my redeemer liveth!' As a pastor he was loving and lovable, as a guest he was genial; he never forgot to admonish the unconverted and I believe that much of his success as a preacher can be attributed to his pastoral work."

Bro. Hobbs says: "Bro. Crouse's ministry in Caroline County, where he was twice pastor, was one of great usefulness and his memory will live long in the hearts of many here. Myself among them was led to Christ under his faithful work. His life spoke of his Christian character as well as his pulpit utterances. I believe he has heard the Master's 'well done.' We in Westminster, (referring to the other members of the committee) who knew him well, loved him well. My personal intercourse with Bro. Crouse was altogether pleasant. He had a wonderful gift in prayer, and could render the meaning and pathos of a beautiful poem better than any one I ever heard. On his last visit to my house, Dec. 31, he repeated a poem on the magnificence of Heaven, so impressively that on leaving I was moved to say, Bro. Crouse, we are not so far apart in years, and I shall not be surprised if we are not far apart in entering the better land little thinking that in a few days he would say indeed—in the closing lines of the poem referred to:

"Anoint, Oh Lord, Anoint my sight
And robe me for that land of light."

"I was with him about an hour and a half before he took his flight; and all was well."

Rev. David Willson

Few men in the Maryland Conference were more widely known and highly respected than Dr. David Wilson. He entered the Conference in 1845, his first charge being assistant on Anne Arundel Circuit. During his ministry, he served many of the most important charges in the Maryland District.

He was born in Martinsburg, Pa., March 30, 1825. His early education was in the public schools of his neighborhood, and afterwards at Salem College, Logansport, Md. In 1894 he was left without an appointment at his own request, and in 1896, took a supernumerary relation in connection with North Carolina Avenue Church, Washington, D. C., which relation he sustained up to the time of his death.

He was elected president of the Conference in 1874, and served in that office for three years. In 1880, he was appointed by President Hayes, Post Chaplain in the United States Army, and was stationed at Fort Meade, Dakota. Under the army regulations he was retired from the active service in 1890. He removed to Denver, Colorado, in 1898, and made that place his home up to the time of his death, which occurred on February 28, 1906. His remains were brought to Uniontown, Md., and interred in the Methodist Protestant Cemetery at that place, on March 8. His funeral was largely attended, and among those in attendance was a large number of his ministerial brethren. The funeral service was in charge of Rev. F. T. Tagg, D. D., assisted by Rev. H. C. Cushing, D. D., Rev. H. L. Elderdice, D. D., Rev. L. F. Warner and Rev. Edgar T. Read.

At the session of the Conference of 1851, Dr. Wilson was loaned to the Board of Missions to be sent as a missionary to China but arrangements for his work were not completed. Whilst he was willing to go as Dr. Tagg remarked at his funeral, "perhaps the church at that time was not ready to send him nor was China then, probably ready to receive him." At any rate the plan fell through. But this young man, then in the flush of his manhood, just twenty-six years old, full of zeal for the cause of his Master, was ready to respond to the call.

During his active ministry he was seldom absent from the sessions of the Annual Conference and always took a deep interest in the deliberations of that body. He was a man of sound judgment, was a ready debater, very courteous in his manner toward his brethren and soon took a prominent position in the Conference.

He was on a number of occasions elected as representative to the General Conference, and was a member of the General Convention of 1877, when the northern and southern sections of the church were reunited. While serving churches in Philadelphia and Baltimore, he studied medicine, but never entered into the active practice.

During his pastorate on Pipe Creek Circuit, Western Maryland College was incorporated and began its work under the new regime. He was one of the charter members, and living at Uniontown, so near the seat of the college, was often in that formative period of the institution, in consultation with the college officials. His interest in the new enterprise was strong and abiding, and his counsels were highly valuable. Indeed, he was one of the most steadfast friends of the college in that day.

The beautiful and commodious church at Westminster was built while he was pastor, the cornerstone being laid in 1868, and the church completed in time for the meeting of the Annual Conference, which held its session there in 1870. He was the last pastor of the Westminster Church while it was a part of Pipe Creek Circuit the late Dr. Hammond succeeding him in 1871 as the first pastor of the new station.

His pastorate on Pipe Creek Circuit was eminently successful as it was indeed in many fields of labor which he served.

He was a man of charming personality free and easy in his manner and made a host of friends wherever he went. His mental endowments were far above the average, and having broad culture, he was a most delightful and instructive conversationalist.

As a preacher he was clear and logical and his sermons while simple and plain, always evinced careful thought and preparation. There was not the suspicion of the sensational about him, and his sermons were just forceful Gospel messages, and the people delighted to hear him.

His nature was warm and sympathetic, and as a pastor he was popular and helpful, affording to those who needed his ministrations the rich consolations of the Gospel.

He has finished his course and gone to his reward, and has doubtless, ere this, met many there who were brought to Jesus Christ through his instrumentality.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, from henceforth: Yet, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their work do follow them."

Mrs. W. A. Crouse

Mrs. Mary C. Crouse, beloved wife of Rev. W. A. Crouse, entered into the heavenly life April 18, 1905. We cannot look beyond the portals through which she has passed, but, walking with God amid the shadows of earth, we are sure she continues to walk with Him in the sunlit realms of glory. Sister Crouse was born November 28, 1829. Carroll county, Md., was the place of her nativity. Her maiden name was Boring. Her mother was one of the original Methodist Protestants, and continued as such until Dahoff's appointment on the old Baltimore Circuit was abandoned under the pastorate of Rev. Isaac Webster. Thus it can be said Sister Crouse was truly a child of the church in the days of its most splendid and heroic history. Sister Crouse was converted in early life at a camp-meeting near Frizzellberg, Carroll county.

In her conversion she had a vision of Christ. She often talked about the joy of that hour and every subsequent hour. Conversion to her was no transient experience, no momentary flash out of the heavens. "The Vision Splendid" lingered during all the years, and it was this consciousness of the divine presence which gave impulse and direction to her life. And truly her life was hid with Christ in God. So gentle, kind, patient, devoted, self-sacrificing. Not only did she possess a personal goodness, but the Christ spirit within was constantly seeking opportunities in which to express itself. Sister Crouse showed a rare proficiency in the home circle and in the work of the church. She was married to Brother Crouse April 3, 1856, and those 49 years of wedded life were enriched with love's sweetest inspirations. Like all noble women, she made the atmosphere of the house. Dr. Southerland, a member of this committee, writes: "Recollections of her of the most pleasant character throng my mind and will there abide. Especially do I recall with delight the parsonage at Roxbury over which she presided and where I was, more than once, an official visitor and a highly honored guest." Our sister was the second wife of Brother Crouse. She took up responsibilities which had fallen from the hands of another, and all that any mother could be to her own children this woman was to the little ones in the family circle where, in the providence of God, she had been called to minister. Sister Crouse entered into church work with the same hearty spirit. She was a helpmeet in the fullest sense of the word, sharing with her husband the toils and trials of itinerant life. Together they visited among the people. Together they labored in protracted meetings and together they will share in the triumphs of work faithfully and lovingly done. In 1893 Brother and Sister Crouse retired from the active ministry and located in Westminster. For Sister Crouse these closing years were full of extreme physical weakness and suffering. Deprived of regular attendance at the public sanctuary, she found a sanctuary in her home. Here she held constant communion with God. Feeling that her life-work was finished, she longed for the time of departure. Patiently she waited for the summons. The end came suddenly. She did not see death. In that last moment, perhaps, she saw a vision far more glorious than that which was given, when her heart for the first time turned in loving submission to the Saviour. The funeral was held in the Westminster M. P. Church, of which she was a member. The service was conducted by her pastor, with the assistance of Revs. H. C. Cushing, D. D., and H. L. Elderdice, D. D. The body sleeps in the town cemetery, waiting for the dawning of the eternal day. May the blessing of heaven abide with our beloved Brother Crouse, who, though weighted with many years, still travels on with strong faith and bright hope.

Government of the Maryland Annual Conference

ORGANIZATION OF CONFERENCE.

He shall also send the name to the President of the Conference and the pastor of the church where the Conference is held.

2. The Secretary shall make a list of the delegates so certified, omitting all contested cases; and this list, together with the list of the ministerial members, shall constitute the roll of Conference upon which the Conference shall organize.

OFFICERS OF THE CONFERENCE.

RULE I—DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT:

1. To take the chair precisely at the hour agreed on at the last adjournment.
2. Preserve the most rigid order, and confine the members to the subject under consideration.
3. Not allow improper personalities nor reflections upon any religious communities.
4. Announce each person rising to speak as soon as he shall have addressed the chair by declaring him "The minister from —," or "The delegate from —."
5. State a question sitting, but stand when the question is put and taken; also when he states a point of order, and also when he makes any formal communication to the Conference.
6. Is not allowed to vote when a question is taken unless there be a tie, but he may vote in case of ballot.
7. May call any member to the chair when he wishes to participate in debate or for other purposes, but such person shall not be entitled to the chair after adjournment.

9. The office of stationing the ministers and preachers is committed to the hands of the President of the Conference.
10. It shall be the duty of the President to fill blanks in statistical reports for all charges unsupplied.

11. In the event of the death of any ministerial member the President shall immediately appoint an Obituary Committee from any number of the most intimate acquaintances of the deceased.

12. The failure of the President to visit any charge does not vitiate his right to the amount assessed for his salary.

13. The President shall represent the general interests of the Conference, and shall present their claims in such a manner and at such times as in his judgment may be necessary. And he shall use his utmost efforts with the Quarterly Conferences of the various charges to secure a salary of not less than $600 for the minister with family, appointed as pastor, who has itinerated five years within the bounds of the Maryland Conference, and he shall urge upon the various charges the prompt payment of the salaries of the pastors, and upon all the churches the importance of being incorporated.

RULE II—DUTIES OF THE SECRETARY:—

1. To perform such duties as are usually required of the Secretary of a deliberative body.

2. Should the President not be in place at the hour of meeting the Secretary, or in his absence one of his assistants, shall announce the fact, and the Conference shall elect a chairman "pro tempore" and proceed to business.

MOTIONS.

RULE VI—Every motion shall be written, signed and read aloud by the mover, handed to the chair and read aloud by the Secretary, before any order can be taken upon it by the Conference; except motions for amendment, to lie on the table, the previous question, or to adjourn.

RULE VII—Any motion may be divided, if the sense will admit of the proposed division.

RULE VIII—When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, but to adjourn, to lie on the table, for the previous question, to commit, to substitute, to amend, or to make the order of the day; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand in this rule; the first three to be taken without debate; and the first always in order. But when the report of a committee has been under discussion, the motion to lay on the table shall not prevail until the chairman of the committee shall have been heard once on the subject, if he desires to speak.

RULE IX—The question under discussion shall be put whenever a call for it is made by five brethren, and sustained by a majority of the Conference.

RULE X—When motions are made for reference of the same subject to a select committee, and to a standing committee, the question on reference to the standing committee shall be first put.

RULE XI—No motion to commit, or to lie on the table, being decided, shall be again allowed, on the same day, at the same stage of the proposition.

RULE XII—A motion, after it is seconded, is the property of the Conference, and the mover has no power to withdraw or have it amended, without leave.

RULE XIII—No amendment shall be in order, further than an amendment to the amendment.

RULE XIV—In filling up blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall be first put. In balloting, blanks shall be rejected and not reported by the tellers.

DECORUM.

RULE XV—When a member desires to present any business, or to speak to any question, he shall arise and address the chair, "Brother President," and then pause until he is announced to the Conference, after which he may proceed addressing the chair, and restricting his remarks to the subject before the Conference.

RULE XVI—If two or more members rise at the same time, the President shall determine which of them is entitled to the floor.

RULE XVII—No interruption shall be allowed while a member is addressing the chair, except a call to order by the President or by a member.

RULE XVIII—When a member is called to order he shall take his seat immediately, and be silent, until the President or member who made the call shall state the rule of order supposed to be infringed; after which the member called to order shall have the right to explain, and the President shall decide.

RULE XIX—In deciding a question of order the President shall restrict himself to the rules of order, and any member declared to be out of order by the President may, if he obtain a second, appeal to the Conference. The question on such appeal shall be taken without debate, but the appellant may state the ground of his appeal. If the Conference sustains the chair, the member shall be allowed to proceed only in order.

RULE XX—No member shall speak oftener than twice to the same question, without special leave of the Conference, nor longer than fifteen minutes at any one time, unless by the same special permission.

RULE XXI—No member shall be allowed to explain remarks made in previous speech, except in regular debate, unless the member replying thereto requests it, or unless another requests.

RULE XXII—Any member shall have the right to call for the reading of the subject under consideration.

RULE XXIII—Every member shall report at roll call of the first day's session, and be present at the daily sessions of Conference.

RULE XXIV—After the affirmative of a question has been put, any member who has not spoken before to the question may rise and speak before the negative is put.

RULE XXV—A member may change his vote at any time before the chair announces the decision of the question.

OBITUARIES.

1. It shall be the duty of the Committee, appointed in accordance with the Rule of Conference, to prepare an obituary, without delay, containing a notice of the place and date of the birth of the brother, the date of his conversion, receiving license to preach, and his reception into the Conference, together with any other important facts connected with his history which their judgment may dictate, in addition to the particulars of his death, and said obituary shall at once be forwarded to the Methodist Protestant for publication, and be reported to the ensuing session of Conference.

2. Every ministerial member of this Conference is hereby requested to make and keep by him a record of his nativity, and of all the prominent acts in his Christian and ministerial history.

3. The obituaries of wives and widows of the ministerial members of the Conference shall also be published in the Minutes.

MOTIONS TO FIX TIME AND PLACE.

All motions to fix time and place of the meeting of the Annual Conference shall lie on the table twenty-four hours.

MARRIAGES.

The Conference cannot encourage any of its members to expect support as married men until they shall have served at least four years in the itinerancy.

TITLES AND DEGREES.

Inasmuch as the degree of Doctor of Philosophy is the badge of University work and most rigid examinations—a degree which our better Colleges refuse to confer, and Universities do not confer for honor, but only for merit in advanced special studies—we feel sure no worthy institution would confer such a title for work done by correspondence, and the man who consents to bear a title so conferred subjects himself to the ridicule of scholars and involves the ministry in a charge of vanity and insincerity. Therefore, this Conference expresses its disapproval of this method of obtaining degrees, and declines to recognize in any way a title so obtained.

CAMP-MEETINGS.

Camp-meetings shall have the sanction of Conference and receive ministerial aid from it on the following conditions:—

1. There shall be no traffic on the Lord's day on the camp-ground or the adjacent territory protected by the laws of the State.

2. The managers or other officers of the camp-meeting shall not bargain for or receive any portion of the money paid to railroads, or to the owner or owners of any conveyance or conveyances, as a consideration for conveying persons to the camp-ground, or the vicinity thereof, on the Lord's day.

4. No advertisement of the running of trains on the Lord's day shall be made by any of the persons referred to in the preceeding paragraphs, nor shall anything be done by their authority or solicitation to contravene the foregoing regulations.

5. Upon receiving from a quarterly conference a request for ministerial supply and a pledge that the above regulations will be faithfully observed, the President of the Annual Conference shall appoint members of this Conference to assist in conducting the camp-meeting.

In the absence of a request and a pledge such as are named above, the President shall not appoint such ministerial supply, nor shall any member of this Conference conduct such camp-meeting as pastor.

Appointees to camp-meeting service must be given four weeks' notice of their appointment. If they find it inconvenient to attend they shall promptly present their excuse to the President. If the President declines to revoke their appointment, a failure to attend shall be reported to this Conference by the President.

MISSIONARY REGULATIONS.

1. Contributions for church extension shall be sent to the Treasurer of the Church Extension Society, that he may disburse the funds to the missionaries according to their various claims.

2. Pastors are instructed to have the Church Extension collections in the hands of the Treasurer by the end of the second quarter of the conference year.

3. The Committee on Church Extension shall ascertain what amount of funds may be regarded as available for church extension purposes the ensuing year.

5. The Church Extension Society of this Conference shall elect seven Trustees for each mission, who shall hold all the property on our mission fields in trust of said Society, and yearly thereafter select a new Board of Trustees as long as the mission relation is sustained. But whenever the mission shall become a circuit or station, the "qualified members," at a meeting regularly called for the purpose, shall have the power to elect their own Trustees, to whom the Trustees appointed by the Church Extension Society shall surrender the church property, together with the books, papers or other valuables held by them as Trustees.

6. When any number of the members of any of our missions shall, through disaffection or from other causes, form themselves into classes, withholding themselves from the means of grace or suffer themselves to be led by those who refuse to attend the official meetings of the church, or shall in any other way walk disorderly, on a charge being brought against such person or persons, the missionary shall see that the accused are tried according to Discipline trial of members. But should the class, of which the accused is a member, refuse or neglect to select two of their number to serve on the committee of trial, then the missionary shall fill the committee by having them selected from any other class in the mission, or from an adjoining station or circuit, as he may think proper, and should the accused be found guilty he, she or they shall be suspended or expelled, as the committee may direct. And should the entire mission become refractory the missionary shall be authorized to select them according to the provision of the Discipline for trial of churches; provided, however, that the person convicted shall in this, and in all cases where the trial is by jury, have an appeal to the Quarterly Conference of the church from which the committee of trial is selected, at the session next ensuing, whose decision shall be final.

7. Missions shall hold Quarterly Conferences.

REMEMBER—that our own Book Concern can furnish supplies of all kinds for Church, Sunday School and Christian Endeavor work at the right prices.

WE CLAIM your patronage because the business belongs to the Methodist Protestant Church, and because we know you can deal as satisfactorily with us as you can elsewhere—if only you will give us a chance.
